ART BY SYD FINI

A dramatic illustration of a young boy with dark hair, seen from behind, sitting in a small wooden boat. He is wearing a red t-shirt and is holding onto the sides of the boat. The boat is on a turbulent sea with large, dark blue and green waves. The sky is a mix of orange and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise, with heavy rain falling diagonally across the entire scene. The overall mood is one of peril and hope.
