Yuna pitched up her voice and sang a wicked whole note. She sent the note hurtling forward, finishing off all three dokkachi at once. She had to admit: it was a thrill. And it was just getting started. As the dokkachi swarmed the stage, Yuna sang verse after verse, manipulating the notes and inflections to deal maximum damage.

'Aaaaand ... cut!'
 Yuna dropped her pose. Mr Han hurried over to their side.
 'You were amazing!'
 'Are you sure that's fine?' Yuna asked. 'We can take it from the top.'
 Mr Han waved away her concerns. 'MoonGlow always shines! Great job with the choreography, Sun Hee. You need to teach the new trainees your moves.'
 'It's easy,' Sun Hee said. 'They just need to remember to feel the beat, then treasure the beat. Is it time for lunch yet?'
 'Almost. I just wanted to let you know that we'll release the music video tomorrow.'
 'Tomorrow?' That seems fast,' Yuna said.
 'It is. But the concert is scheduled for Saturday, and we need to build hype for MoonGlow before then,' Mr Han said. 'Ara is working on new

CELEBRATE 30 YEARS OF NATIONAL FAMILY READING MONTH—MAY 2026

For 30 years, Scholastic's NATIONAL FAMILY READING MONTH (NFRM) has been bringing families together through the joy of books. We know that when children read regularly with their families and role models, they gain skills, confidence, and a love of reading that lasts a lifetime.

This May, let's make reading A DAILY HABIT, A FAMILY TRADITION, AND A GIFT THAT LASTS FOREVER.

WHY TAKE PART?

- Reading together strengthens bonds and creates cherished memories.
- Just 10 minutes a day can spark imagination and build lifelong learning skills.
- In a world full of distractions, reading is a powerful way to pause, connect, and inspire.

THE 31-DAY READING CHALLENGE

We challenge families everywhere to:

- Read together for 10 minutes every day in May.
- Share stories, discover new books, and make reading a part of everyday life.
- Be part of a national movement creating lifelong readers.

BE INSPIRED

This year's Challenge will be more inspirational than ever before with our team of supporters:

MR LUKE, RETURNING AS AMBASSADOR FOR 2026, will be joined once again by ILLUSTRATOR CHRIS KENNETT, together with powerhouse couple MATT COSGROVE AND EVA AMORES, CREATORS OF THE HILARIOUS WORST WEEK EVER SERIES, making the NFRM DREAM TEAM!

NFRM WILL LAUNCH ON FRIDAY, 1ST OF MAY 2026, AT 11 AM AEST AND 1 PM NZST, where it will be livestreamed all across Australia and New Zealand via Facebook and YouTube.

Mr Luke will read his book, MR LUKE'S MAGIC LIBRARY, DINOSAUR TRAIL, together with illustrator Chris Kennett, followed by a reading from Matt and Eva from their latest release, WORST HERO EVER: FEET FIRST! and kick off the 31-Day Challenge, as we READ EVERY DAY! READ MORE IN MAY!

HOW TO SUPPORT NFRM in YOUR STORE

This is your opportunity to join the celebration of reading for NATIONAL FAMILY READING MONTH.

Bring your store alive with your favourite books and hold this event on the 1st of May to READ EVERY DAY! READ MORE IN MAY!

With your store's support and contagious enthusiasm we can help build the momentum for families across Australia and New Zealand to join the challenge and READ MORE IN MAY!

You can guide customers' families in the following ways:

HANDING OUT BOOKMARKS

Encourage customers to register for the 31-Day Challenge.

Create a reading corner!

HOLD A LAUNCH PARTY AT YOUR STORE

Celebrate the launch of NFRM by holding a launch party in your store 1 May at 11AM AEST and 1PM NZST.

Have you ever wondered how vampires got their taste for blood? Count Dracula is not your average vampire. Well, sure, he's undead, hates garlic, and will burn up in sunlight—but unlike other vampires, he has a knack for baking. And it's his brunch club's famous blood-orange-jelly donuts that give his fellow vampires the energy source they need to live forever. But when Transylvania experiences a mysterious jelly shortage, it allows his nemesis, Constantine, to swoop in and steal the brunch club—and the vampires' loyalty—from Dracula. But it's not just jelly donuts at stake. When townsfolk start to go missing, Dracula suspects Constantine has far more sinister motives lurking that could threaten everything vampires and humans have worked for. With the help of his chef and human friend, Elena, Dracula must find a new energy source before every vampire and human turns on him and he loses his coveted brunch club forever.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

In the midst of a brutal winter in the unforgiving Snowlands, famine plague the wolf pack. As the pack goes hungry, blame falls on Feba, an orphaned wolf cub whose white fur many believe is a bad omen. When the wolf pack's cubs vanish, the pack leaders vote to banish Feba. She escapes her fate and runs off into the icy wilderness of the Snowlands. Lost in the mountains, Feba stumbles upon Usha, an unfriendly snow leopard mother on a personal quest. While Usha wants to continue her journey alone, she grudgingly allows Feba and a skittish young mountain cat, Batu, to follow her. With a snowy trail full of deadly obstacles ahead, the unlikely trio sets out to find the Seeress, a magical being Usha hopes can find her missing son. Each step takes them deeper into danger where they encounter other creatures, uncover a widespread peril in the mountains, the fate of the missing cubs and what having a family truly means.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A brand-new, full-colour graphic novel series for animal fantasy fans.
- An epic tale of survival and friendship full of wild creatures, magical mysteries and dangerous terrain.
- Featuring both prey and predators, who mysteriously disappear, which will intrigue and entertain young readers.

When Sara wakes for the first day of sixth grade, she's horrified by the sight of fuzzy black hair sprouting from her legs—and her parents won't let her shave! Being mixed race, Sara's been unsettled in her own skin (now buried under leg hair), never really feeling like she belongs anywhere. To add to the confusion, her best friend Monica is suddenly spending every second of the day with Aneliese, making Sara wonder if she belongs there either. Navigating friendships, school and bodily changes starts to get overwhelming, but Sara finds comfort in TV – whether she's watching it, performing her favourite scenes or imagining her life is a show itself. So when she joins the drama club, Sara feels like she's finally discovered a community where she can be anything she wants, including herself. But with Monica and Aneliese joining the club too, will Sara lose her new sense of belonging?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Sara Amini's semi-autobiographical wildly funny story navigates life as a mixed-race, first generational girl.
- Sara is a rising Hollywood talent, with performances in Modern Family, Veep and CSI. This is her graphic novel debut.
- Artist Shadia Amin returns, having illustrated Shiny Misfits and the Spider-Ham series.

Nora is a prize-winning horseback rider in a suburban area, with a tight-knit circle of best friends. But when her mum gets a prestigious new job in a poor, rural area, she has to adjust to a lot of change—to being the only Black kid in a new class and to a new barn called Creaky Acres, where her beloved horse, Hay Fever, will make his new home. It's there she meets sweet and geeky Laura, goofy and fun-loving Wilson, and fearless Dolores (aka Dizzy). With her ragtag team of equestrians, Nora learns it's okay to stand out and steps into her power as a leader, realising that being a rider isn't just about winning—or maybe that winning just might look different than what she'd thought.

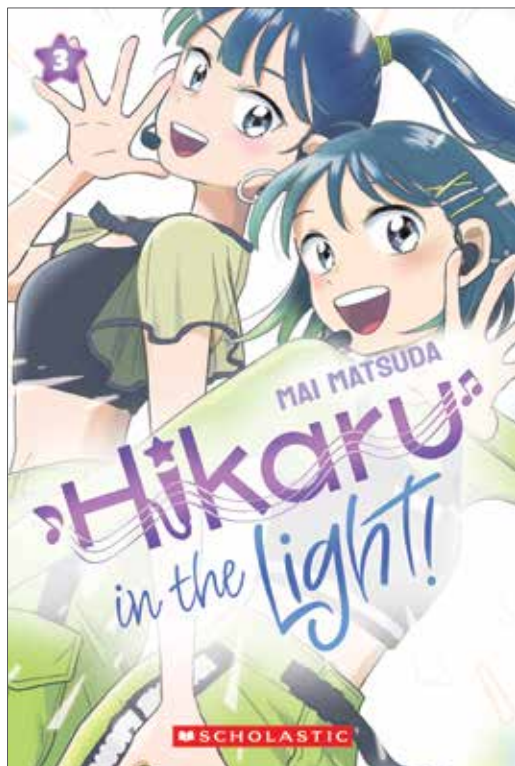

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A heartwarming middle-grade graphic novel about being the new kid and making new friends.
- Ideal for readers who love sports, teamwork and coming-of-age stories told through a more visual format.
- Vibrant art and relatable characters make this story both heartfelt and fun.
- Touches on race, class, resilience and self-confidence with warmth and sensitivity.

There are two things Matilda Bell can count on: her best friend, Gemma, and being top of every class. But this year, everything has changed. Gemma has moved away, leaving Matilda all alone at school, and Will O'Connor has moved to town. Not only does Will disrupt every lesson—Matilda's pet hate—but he's somehow matching her grades with zero effort. If only Matilda could ignore him ... but Will gets under her skin in a way that no-one else ever has. When Will is forced to join the debating team, he and Matilda spend more time arguing with each other than winning debates. With their team losses mounting up, Gemma ignoring her calls and old enemies getting up to new tricks, Matilda feels like her life is out of control. Can Matilda find a way to work with Will so they can win as a team? Or will they end up hating each other in the process?

Cedric is a dragon like no other. He lives at the zoo, adores children, and is quite possibly the most spectacular dragon Tig has ever known. But when the real reptiles insist he is not a true dragon, Cedric begins to doubt himself. With Tig on his back, he soars far away to find somewhere he belongs, leaving the zoo in chaos. It will take a murmuration of birds, a zoo full of worried animals, and a very big apology to bring their beloved dragon home again. A warm and magical celebration of imagination, belonging and what makes something real.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Based on the dragon sculpture that decades of children have climbed on at Auckland Zoo, giving the story a strong New Zealand sense of place.
- Cedric is an instantly endearing dragon character, kind-natured, self-doubting and brave, making him appealing for classroom discussions and family reading.
- Beautifully illustrated by Craig Phillips, whose vibrant artwork brings Cedric's magical flight sequence and the zoo world to life with cinematic drama.
- A satisfying ending brings Cedric home to the zoo he loves, where children, animals and zookeepers unite to welcome their dragon back.
- A companion title to 2024's Elephant Park, by Melanie Koster and Jenny Cooper, written about the elephant slide in Bishopdale Park in Christchurch.

Grumble the troll wants one thing only. Sleep. Long, peaceful, uninterrupted sleep. But living under a bridge means there is always someone clip-clopping, quack-quacking or squelch-squelching over his head. One by one, Grumble bans every noisy creature he meets ... then decides to take himself off to find somewhere quieter. Ah, a nice dark cave. Just as he settles in to go to sleep, he finds it might not be the sanctuary he thought. A playful twist on the classic troll tale, full of humour, surprise and very determined animals.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A fresh and funny reimagining of the troll under the bridge tale, full of playful interruption and strong read-aloud appeal.
- Brought to life with Herb MacDonald's funny, warm, and expressive characters that capture the charm of Grumble's world.
- A lively cast of noisy intruders keeps the pace brisk, from clompy goats and an impatient duck to the determined snail who, when told to "Go home!" simply disappears inside its shell.
- Explores gentle themes of boundaries, belonging, problem-solving and what truly makes a home.

Nora Nightsky is a star—literally. Her glamorous mum is the North Star, and their dazzling family works hard, bringing to life the Little Bear constellation and sprinkling magic down to earth to grant human wishes. But Nora is nowhere near as shiny as her perfect brother and sister. She prefers a cosy black hole! She doesn't think much of wish-granting either. Why can't humans solve their own problems?! Then one day, a girl wishes on Nora for the first time, asking for a pet. Rebelling against the rules, Nora sneaks down to Earth with her best friend Leap, a cute hare constellation, to give the girl a piece of her mind! Nora agrees to help Olivia get a pet—through determination, a cunning plan and PLENTY of mischief. But can she do it before she runs out of stardust and is trapped on Earth forever...?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A charming new young fiction series for readers moving up to the next level, brilliantly illustrated throughout in black and white by Becka Moor.
- Nora is a fun, bold, relatable character with a rebellious streak—and her adorable sparkly hare sidekick, Leap, balances her edginess perfectly!
- Gently introduces facts and mythology about astronomy and constellations in a playful and accessible way.
- Lots of humour, mischief and antics with a beautiful friendship at its heart.

Dad was looking around. "Who were you winking at, Olivia? What – WHAT is a RABBIT doing in the house?"

All three humans turned to stare at Leap. He had hopped curiously into the kitchen.

That was not part of my plan.

Thinking fast, I went in after him and quickly skipped to the next part of The Plan.

"Hi, Mr and Mrs Olivia's parents," I said. "Mmm, your porridge looks tasty. What's that on top?"

And that's when I sprinkled my pinch of stardust on their breakfasts. My dazzle-o-meter level took a hit, but... Well, I just needed this spell to work.

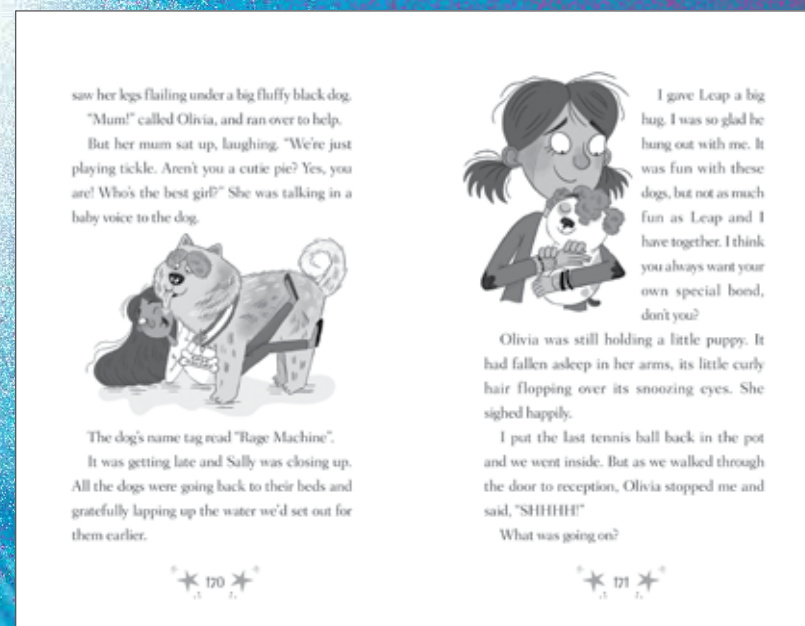

Olivia's mum and dad both had their mouths open in shock.

"Err... it's berries and nuts, but..." said her mum. This reminded her to take a spoonful and, when she did, the stardust worked!

SHUM! ZIP! FIZZLE!

She seemed to fizz and crackle lightly, then she smiled. "I mean, welcome, Nora! How nice to see you again. Dave, don't you remember Olivia's friend Nora was coming over for breakfast?"

"No, I—" Her dad was still stunned.

saw her legs flailing under a big fluffy black dog.

"Mum!" called Olivia, and ran over to help.

But her mum sat up, laughing. "We're just playing tickle. Aren't you a cutie pie? Yes, you are! Who's the best girl?" She was talking in a baby voice to the dog.

The dog's name tag read "Rage Machine".

It was getting late and Sally was closing up. All the dogs were going back to their beds and gratefully lapping up the water we'd set out for them earlier.

I gave Leap a big hug. I was so glad he hung out with me. It was fun with these dogs, but not as much fun as Leap and I have together. I think you always want your own special bond, don't you?

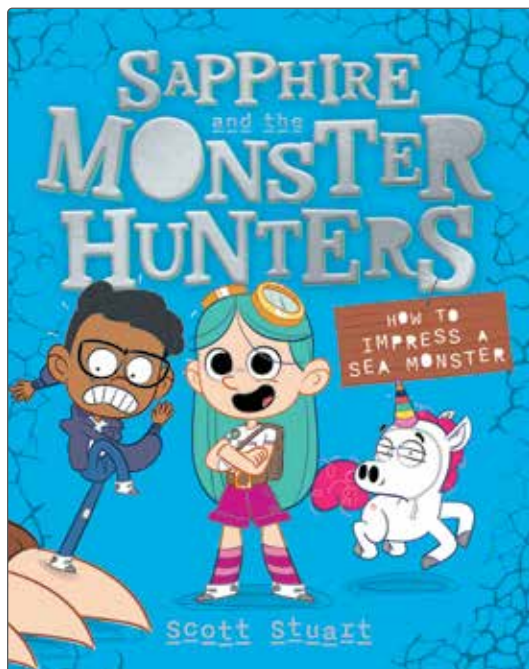

Olivia was still holding a little puppy. It had fallen asleep in her arms, its little curly hair flopping over its snoozing eyes. She sighed happily.

I put the last tennis ball back in the pot and we went inside. But as we walked through the door to reception, Olivia stopped me and said, "SHHHH!"

What was going on?

Siblings Ruby and Henry have an unusual kind of home life compared to their friends. Their family operates an animal sanctuary with a unique collection of full-time pet residents: a pig, a dog, the world's bossiest cat, two silly goats, chickens and a llama who thinks he's a human. Not to mention, Ruby and Henry's mum is also a vet at the animal clinic in town. Let's just say, when it comes to animals, it's hard for Ruby and Henry's family to say no. But a couple of months ago, their parents decided that the farm is full. No additional resident farm animals. No more fosters. Of course, rules are meant to be broken ... A scared puppy has just arrived at their mum's clinic, and he's lost mobility in his back legs because of an injury. What's worse is that the newly named Arlo clearly knows he's been abandoned. But with Ruby's builder brain, Henry's heart and a little bit of kindness from their ragtag group of animals at the sanctuary, they might just be able to teach Arlo how to trust again.

Adaki dreams of being a powerful Firebender, but at eleven years old, he feels like he's not where he should be. So when the chance to train with his school's best firebending master arises, Adaki jumps at the opportunity, even though it means he and his friends will have to compete in a tournament full of older kids with more experience—and more attitude. When training does not go as planned—what do cooking and maths have to do with being a Firebender?—Adaki begins to wonder: Can he and his friends overcome their inexperience and defeat the older competitors? This is a 144-page illustrated chapter book centred on the world of Avatar the Last Airbender with all new characters and adventures.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- First released in 2008, Avatar: The Last Airbender has quickly become a cult classic! Adults continue to relish this series and a new fan-base grows in the younger generation.
- This funny, action-packed story is the first in a new illustrated chapter book series set in the world of Avatar Legends, perfect for young readers who love stories about adventure and friendship!
- Excitement is building as fans anticipate the release of The Legend of Aang: The Last Airbender in October of 2026. The new film will get a theatrical release, and feature Aang and his friends as young adults several years after the events of the original series.

Ruse remembers water, darkness, and then nothing. Nothing—and then suddenly she's awake in a shaking room she doesn't recognise. She doesn't recognise these other kids either—one a small girl with a frayed rope dangling from her neck, the other a starved-looking boy wearing a tattered mask over his mouth and nose. Wherever they are, it isn't safe. Flashing colours and bizarre sounds filter through the cracks in the wood, giving way to a nightmarish carnival. Ruse knows that she needs to get out of here, but are her new companions friends, or enemies? When one wrong move can land you in the arms of monsters—and worse—Ruse will have to find a way to survive. Can she and her new companions possibly endure this frightening and twisted world? Or will they be warped forevermore by its dark influence?

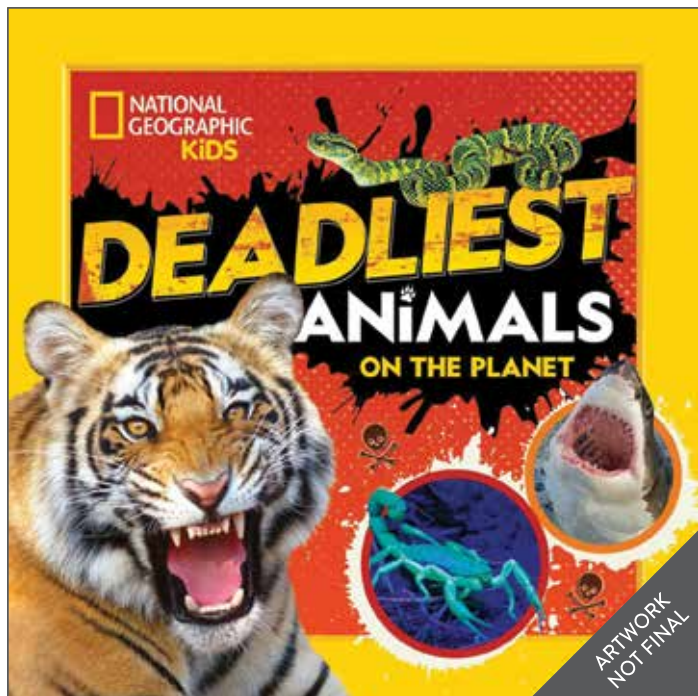

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- With over 4 million units sold across both main games in the franchise and overwhelmingly positive reviews, Little Nightmares is truly a breakout hit!
- Boasts massive interaction on social media with well known YouTubers, broadening the fan base beyond just those who have played the game.
- Horror, and in particular, horror video games, show zero signs of slowing down.
- The game is rated T for teen.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS

DETAILS!

Clarion may be the future queen of Pixie Hollow, but she knows she still has a lot to learn. For starters, she doesn't know anything about what happens in the Winter Woods, a part of her world no warm-season fairy has ventured into in centuries. That is ... until reports of a monster crossing from Winter into Spring begin to emerge. But instead of finding a monster at the edge of Winter, she finds Milori, the young guardian of the Winter Woods. Together, they form an unlikely alliance as they race to save their lands. But as their bond grows into something more, they will discover the hard way the reasons a warm-season fairy and a winter fairy should not be together. The cost of their love could turn out to be just as dangerous as the nightmare monsters that plague Pixie Hollow.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

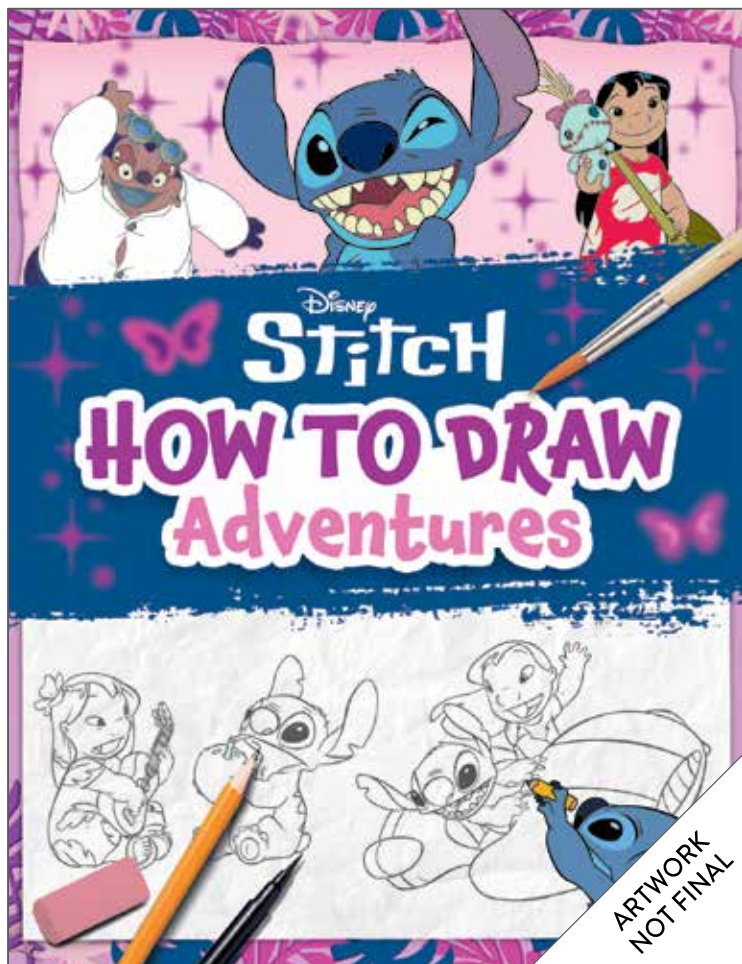

- A prequel to the popular franchise featuring Tinker Bell in the world of Pixie Hollow, Wings of Starlight explores the story of Queen Clarion and Lord Miroli.
- Fairy-centric romances are currently making a significant impact on the market thanks to the 'romantasy' readers of TikTok. Combined with the power of the large cult following for the Disney Fairies franchise, this is a promising title that marries two demographics of passionate fans.
- Based on the New York Times best-selling novel by Allison Saft, this manga retelling brings the magical tale to life in an all-new way.

Disney Stitch

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Stitch's popularity is bigger than ever! The film may be more than 20 years old but is considered a modern classic. Stitch's popularity and charm make this colouring book an irresistible choice for kids and adults alike who love his playful and adventurous spirit.
- Stitch is also hugely popular on social media where fans share memes, art and Stitch merch. There are more than 500,000 TikToks featuring the hashtag #liloandstitch.
- Stitch's viral likeability increases year on year with the enormous range of licensed product in market. His iconic sense of cheekiness and fun appeals to all ages, and his commercial success just keeps growing!

This is the story of Scotty the Scottish Terrier. It tells how he went to Gumnut Land and what befell him there ... Scotty wasn't very happy in his home in the Big Bad City. It was very dull sitting about for hours and hours, always on the wrong side of the gate. Then on one fateful day, the gate was left open. This was Scotty's chance! Out of the garden he ran into the magical world of Gumnut Land.

Scotty's adventures take him all around the Australian Bush, into the Valley of the Caves, the friendly hustle and bustle of Gumnut Town and beyond! Join Scotty on his journey and meet a fantastical cast of creatures: Mr and Mrs Bear, Bib and Bub, Old Bill, the terrific Tiggy Touchwood and Miffrend of Squeaking House.
