Format: PAPERBACK

The launch of a brand-new series from blockbuster Warriors author Erin Hunter about two orphaned cat sisters who discover a secret world of magical creatures ... and the humans who are out to control them. Willow and Luna have been on their own since they were kittens. After their mother's death, they settled into a scrappy life in the heart of the city. But when a mysterious fire rips through their makeshift shelter, they're left searching for a new home. Luna is immediately drawn in by the strange, secretive animals they meet in the park—animals they can somehow talk to ... and who unlock her ability to perform magic. Willow is less sure about these so-called 'attuned' animals and has no interest in joining their world—or their fight against the human witches who seek to 'bind' the animals to them. As Luna and Willow come to realise their own unique magic, they find themselves at odds, separated by destiny, with the fate of the whole city in their paws.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- New middle-grade fantasy series from bestselling author, Erin Hunter.
- Exciting and magical worldbuilding featuring animals with unique powers and an underground society.
- There's dramatic conflict between magical creatures and human witches.

Something is missing from Cassie's life. Her parents don't have much money, she has to share her bedroom (and bed!) with her sisters, and her family never seem to have time for her. To make matters worse, her best friend Vali is always busy with a new friend. When Cassie gets a letter from a magazine sweepstakes with the words 'YOU'RE THE WINNER' stamped on the front, she thinks it's the answer to all her problems. She could buy new furniture to replace their shabby old sofa. Or maybe a car so her family doesn't have to take two trips to go places. Or maybe she can make Vali her best friend forever by taking her on a fabulous holiday. The possibilities are endless, like an all-you-can-eat buffet! But will prizes really solve Cassie's problems? And what will she lose if she doesn't win anything at all?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

Eighth grade isn't off to a great start. Everyone but Rex seems to be coupling up, and he's starting to feel like an outsider ... until he meets Charlotte. She's fearless, smart, pretty, and she likes him back. But as great as Charlotte is, there's someone Rex can't stop thinking about. Drew is Rex's childhood best friend, so when he kisses Rex, all kinds of new feelings begin to stir. Though at school, Drew acts like he doesn't even know Rex, making those feelings turn really confusing really fast. And with all the strong opinions Rex hears at home and at church, he questions his own worth and what his affections actually mean. Rex wants to be more like his new friend, Nina, and not care what others think, but being himself seems impossible. When did middle school get so confusing?!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A pitch-perfect middle-grade graphic memoir about crushes, coming out and finding the courage to be yourself.
- Captures the emotional intensity and confusion of middle school with warmth, humour and honesty, while tackling big themes.
- Encourages empathy and self-acceptance, inviting readers to question assumptions and embrace who they are.

Emma can't help comparing herself to her bright and popular older sister, Julia. Try as she might, Emma can't seem to please her mum as much as her sister does. And trying to be as good as everyone else at everything is exhausting and frustrating. With help from her friends, as well as Lexi, the French bulldog she's dogsitting, Emma realises that there's no such thing as 'perfect'—and it feels better to be true to herself, instead of trying to please others. But will other people, especially her mum, understand that Emma may not excel at the same things as her sister?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- This book has well-developed characters, a positive message and vibrant illustrations.
- Features an accurate representation of teenagers grappling with identity, self worth, and jealousy, all in a fun, colourful and magical medium.

Silas's life is spiralling out of control when he receives an invitation from Eve to trek the Tasmanian wilderness, with a disclaimer: It will be cold. Remote. Treacherous. And I cannot guarantee passage home alive. The trek is a sheer vertical climb. In Antarctic conditions. Subject to violent storms. Untamed, unpeopled and dangerous. Also, exactly what Silas needs to reset his compass. But then a polar blast hits. Perilously cold and cut off from help, Silas and Eve face a stark, gale-forced world. And one terrible choice. Choices are not always easy, even when they're right. But Silas has never shied away from making tough decisions. Until now. Until this. Because this is the most brutal survival lesson. And sometimes the cost of saving a life can only be measured by the cost of losing one.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A gripping new standalone thriller from acclaimed author Hayley Lawrence.
- Brilliantly written, this is a breathtaking, suspenseful novel that is full of heart-stopping action and danger.
- The story is told from two POVs: 16-year-old Silas, one of the characters from Into the Wild, who is desperate to escape his problems and reconnect with his dad, and 16-year-old Eve Winters, who is desperate to claim her freedom and reconnect with her sister.
- The story is about two fierce, fearless teenagers who will do anything to defy the odds and overcome the obstacles thrown in their paths.
- Contains themes of survival, bravery, personal loss and love.

Meet Pocket, created as a good luck charm for soldiers going into battle, whose bravery and loyalty lives on long after the war. Thimble-born from tip to toe, Pocket Bear remembers every moment of his becoming: the glimmering needle, the silken thread, the tender hands as each careful stitch brought him closer to himself. Born during the throes of WWI, he was designed to fit into the pocket of a soldier's jacket, eyes sewn a bit higher than normal so that he always gazed upward. That way, glancing at his pocket, a soldier would see an endearing token of love from someone back home, and, hopefully, a good luck charm. Now, over a century later, Pocket serves as unofficial mayor of Second Chances Home for the Tossed and Treasured, where stuffed toy animals are refurbished and given a fresh opportunity to be loved. He and his best feline friend Zephyrina, known far and wide as 'The Cat Burglar', have seen it all, and then some.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- An unforgettable tale of bravery, loyalty and kindness.
- A reminder that love comes in many forms (sometimes filled with fluff), and that second chances are always possible.
- A heartwarming tale that follows the various adventures of Pocket and his best friend, a fluffy cat named Zephyrina.
- Stunning black and white illustrations throughout the book bring the characters to life.

INVERCARGILL, 2020

Wow, I thought I knew a bit about the dawn raids, but this is HUGE. It happened to my OWN family and I never knew! I had no idea that Granfia and her family had been dawn-raided. She was even a Polynesian Panther!

When COVID-19 lockdown hits Aotearoa in 2020, Jeremy and his whānau retreat to his grandparents' quiet farm near Invercargill. And while spending more time with his grandmother, Jeremy discovers she has an intriguing past.

Fifty years after the dawn raids of the 1970s, Sofia Savea's stories of activism and Polynesian Panther life blaze into reality for Jeremy and awaken a sense of purpose in him that leads to his own unexpected journey. Jeremy begins to see how much words and actions mean—not just to his gran—but to an entire generation who never stopped waiting to be heard ... and who deserve an apology.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Pauline (Vaeluaga) Smith has teamed up with her teenage grandson, Brooklyn Taylor, to write this new book in the popular My New Zealand Story series with an authentic and often humorous voice.
- A thought-provoking sequel to the successful Dawn Raid, winner of the Best First Book award at the NZ Children's and Young Adults Book Awards 2018 and picked up for publication in the USA by Levine Querido.
- The story begins with the global outbreak of COVID-19 and blends a fictional story of daily life in those times of lockdowns and uncertainty, with real world events, culminating in the NZ government apology for the dawn raids.
- Explores themes of identity, activism and intergenerational storytelling through an accessible and engaging teenage perspective.

From noisy neighbours ... to the best of friends! Rana, the little red panda, has a very noisy problem: a parakeet has moved into her tree, and he won't stop screeching! Rana decides that two can play at that game, and she stomps off into the forest to collect all the noisiest objects she can find. But something very big and very quiet is padding behind her ... a tiger! Can Rana and Parakeet work together, to scare that tiger away?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A fabulously warm, funny story about making friends and learning to understand one another.
- Children will love joining in with all the noisy noises throughout the story.
- Raahat Kaduji's previous books, I'm Not Scary and I'm Not Sleepy, have been widely acclaimed for their rich, colourful and endearing illustrations.

Can they get out of the Frying Pan without getting into the fire? Tamzin Pook and her group of unlikely fighters-turned-friends have managed to make it out of Thorbury alive. Now with a massive, terrifying, armoured and un-dead Revenant (and its pet kitten) as one of their gang. For their next mission, Tamzin and her friends head to the city of Museion to help save it from the ferocious predator suburbs that surround it and keep it trapped in the mountain valley known as the Frying Pan. Here, Tamzin, Max Angmering, Oddington Doom and Hilly Torpenhow are in for the toughest fight of their lives. But as they battle for the fate of Museion against the terrible predators that surround them, people on board Museion start to die one by one from a traitor within. They've got to figure out an escape, but every direction looks like a trap.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Epic companion to Thunder City, set in the world of the Mortal Engines quartet.
- The Mortal Engines series is perfect for teen boy readers; it has cinematic storytelling with the action and fast pace of a video game.

San Francisco, 1906. When Cora leaves her house in the early morning hours of April 18th, she expects trouble to find her, like it somehow always does. But as she makes her way to the San Francisco docks to look for her father, the earth begins to shake and suddenly, Cora realises that she's not just in trouble—she's in danger. Soon after, the last thing Cora remembers seeing is a tall building swaying overhead, before everything goes dark. When Cora wakes up, she's trapped underground with Chi, whom she met by accident on the way to the docks. They're running short on air and time, when miraculously, Cora's friend Oliver pulls them from the rubble. Once she's above ground again, Cora is shocked to find herself in a city that has been decimated by a massive earthquake. Together, Cora, Chi and Oliver begin a desperate search for their families, all the while trying to evade terrifying fires that are tearing through the wreckage and a gang of thieves who are pursuing Cora and a valuable secret she holds.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- The harrowing story of the fight for survival during the Great San Francisco Earthquake of 1906 and the desperate race to find survivors.
- A thrilling, suspenseful story about courage, friendship and the strength it takes to survive one of the most terrible natural disasters the US has ever seen.
- From beloved #1 New York Times best-selling author, Jennifer A. Nielsen.

Siblings Ruby and Henry have an unusual kind of home life compared to their friends. Their family operates an animal sanctuary with a unique collection of full-time pet residents: a pig, a dog, the world's bossiest cat, two silly goats, chickens and a llama who thinks he's a human. Not to mention, Ruby and Henry's mum is also a vet at the animal clinic in town. Let's just say, when it comes to animals, it's hard for Ruby and Henry's family to say no, especially when they stumble upon a litter of abandoned kittens on the side of the road. With seven new house guests with seven very different personalities, it's only fitting to name them after the seven dwarfs. The hard part is going to be finding good homes for each unique kitten. If anyone can do it, it's Ruby and Henry. But first, they're going to need to keep their new campers feeling safe and well taken care of while they grow big and strong enough to be adopted. And as it turns out, this will be harder than it seems ...

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A heartwarming and fun middle grade series about a unique animal sanctuary, perfect for young readers and animal lovers alike.
- Features a memorable cast of animal characters—including a pig, llama, goats and seven kittens named after the seven dwarfs.
- Themes of kindness, empathy and trust; balancing joy with the emotional reality of finding animals their forever homes.

Rapunzel knows nothing about her neighbouring kingdom, Astera—and not just because she only left her tower a month ago. So when a suspicious invitation arrives welcoming Rapunzel to the Asteran princess's coming of age ceremony, Rapunzel accepts—and unwittingly plunges herself and her companion, Eugene, into a tangled knot of political intrigue and magical secrets. Yet as they're drawn further into the country's problems, they uncover truths about Eugene's parentage that point to deeper unrest in Astera, and suddenly the fate of their own kingdom, not just their personal dreams, is at stake. Thrust into a power struggle, Rapunzel and Eugene race to protect their home from an unsettlingly familiar threat and discover that the past can either hold them back, or help them blossom.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Tangled is a well-loved Disney film which grossed $592.5M worldwide and garnered positive reviews from critics and audiences alike. Rapunzel is also one of the most recognisable Disney Princess in the APAC region.
- This brand new, original story of Rapunzel and Eugene gives fans a glimpse of what happens after the events of Tangled, extending the magic, fun and adventure from the 2010 film.
- Written by New York Times best-selling author Margaret Owen, known for her popular young adult series Little Thieves and The Merciful Crow, both of which have large fan followings.

Lyria and her mother have been on the run from the human kingdom of Verdinae for as long as she can remember. She's an Elf born with a magical Talent—a double offense in a kingdom determined to eradicate both. But when she finds a boy being attacked by a deadly monster in the forest, Lyria risks everything by using magic to save him. She doesn't expect him to survive, and she definitely doesn't expect him to be a human prince. Offered a position at the palace as the royal apothecary, Lyria seizes the chance to step into the light and prove to her mother she can control her unwieldy Talent. But Verdinae is not the paradise it seems. The nobles are ruthless, the secrets are deadly, and Cygnus—the brooding royal healer—seems determined to expose Lyria's every flaw. But beneath the palace lies a darkness far more dangerous than any secret. And when Lyria and Cygnus uncover a hidden world that could change everything, she must decide who to trust and how much she's willing to risk for a love that was never meant to be.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Written by TikTok influencer Sasha E. Sloan, this book is perfect for fans of everything romantasy, from heartstopping romance to unbelievable fantasy worlds.
- Comparable to other 'BookTok' sensations like Lightlark and Assistant to the Villain, both New York Times best-selling titles by fellow TikTok influencers Alex Aster and Hannah Nicole Maehrer.
- The power of TikTok and the rise of the romantasy genre cannot be overstated, even years after its entry into the market, thanks to high demand and the selling power of the platform itself. Sloan herself has over 1.6 million followers, and so brings new audiences and potential buyers into the market.

Celebrate 100 years in the Hundred-Acre Wood with Winnie the Pooh and his friends! This gift set includes a Winnie the Pooh plush and storybook, Something Different. As summer rolls into the Hundred-Acre Wood, so does thunder and lightning! Read along as Pooh learns about the seasons changing.

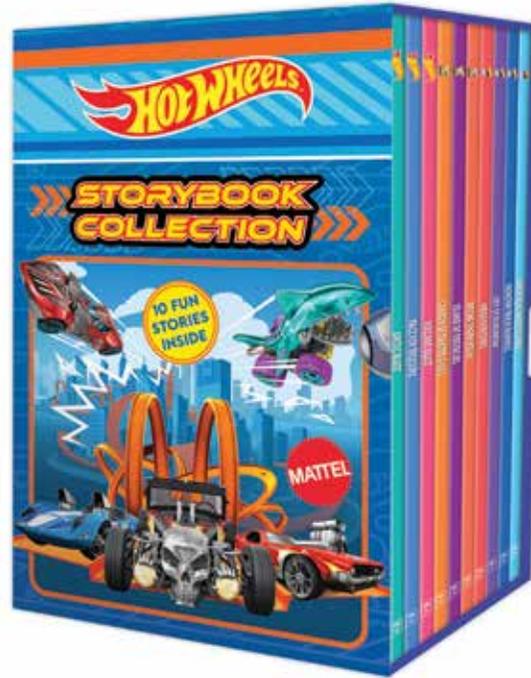

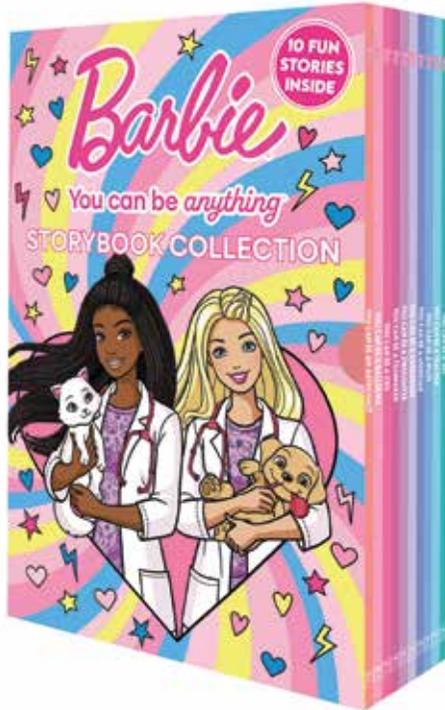

As Pooh and Piglet walked on, Pooh looked around as Rabbit had directed, even though he wasn't sure what he was supposed to be looking at, exactly. Then he spotted a mother duck with her three ducklings. 'Oh, look how big they are!' he cried. 'It seems only yesterday they were just tiny bits of fluff.' 'They were born in the spring,' Piglet recalled. 'And now it's summer. Maybe that's why they're bigger now. After all, it's a whole different season.'

'Why, yes, that's exactly it!' Piglet sounded rather impressed. 'Just yesterday I noticed that Christopher Robin was wearing shorts and no jacket.' 'I suppose it's just one more change that means summer,' Pooh said wisely. 'With the weather being warmer now than then and suchlike.'

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Ten stories in one handy box make it easy to dip in again and again, offering great value and plenty of variety for shared reading, bedtime or quiet time.
- Featuring much-loved characters kids already adore, this collection helps draw in reluctant readers, building enthusiasm and confidence as they recognise familiar faces and worlds.
- Perfectly sized stories for growing readers, encouraging independent reading while supporting comprehension and a genuine love of books.
