If you got:

Mostly As, you'd turn into a wolf!

You're most at home in forests and mountains, where wolves travel in close-knit packs. Like them, you work well with others and help your group stay connected and strong.

Mostly Bs, you'd turn into a bat!

You thrive in quiet, hidden places like caves and tree hollows. Like a bat, you notice small details and find clever ways to solve problems.

Mostly Cs, you'd turn into a leopard seal!

You belong in icy waters and drifting icebergs, where leopard seals explore and adapt to constant change. Like them, you're curious and always ready to discover something new.

Mostly Ds, you'd turn into a jaguar!

You would love to explore dense rainforests, where jaguars move silently and think before they leap. You're focused and strategic, choosing the smartest path through any challenge.
