Ozzy was an Aussie Mozzie from Tassie—or was he?

Readers will be in fits of laughter trying to read (or sing) this hilarious cumulative text, adding on all sorts of adjectives, such as tizzy and dizzy, sneezy and queasy. Such a fun book to share with all ages!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Deano Yipadee has teamed up with The Wonky Donkey man, popular children's entertainer Craig Smith, in this riotous, cumulative sing-along.
- Children will love the outrageously funny story and the unexpected ending with Ozzy's identity crisis!
- Jonathan Bentley's lively illustrations are packed with visual slapstick comedy that kids will enjoy.
- For fans of The Wonky Donkey and the Nee Naw series of books.

The Realms of Nyx have been peaceful ... until now. Short-eared elf Dru is a warrior in training. Long-ear Bren is an apprentice mage. Their two tribes have been taught to distrust each other. But when their families and entire villages suddenly disappear, Dru and Bren only have one choice: to join forces and enter the Mysterious Forest in search of those they love. According to legend, the forest is full of terrifying and mysterious occurrences and creatures. Dru and Bren have zero reason to trust each other. To make matters worse, neither elf has ever dared to enter the forest alone. And if their villages have been taken by the soul suckers, as they suspect, then entering the forest is the worst thing they can do. Will they be able to find their loved ones, or will they disappear into the forest without a trace? Or worse, be taken by the soul suckers?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A new fantasy series about short-ear and long-ear elf tribes fighting to save their world from the soul suckers that want to destroy them.
- The first book in a brand-new quest series for readers who love adventure, mystery and magic.
- Includes gorgeous black-and-white illustrations inside by Chad Mitchell.
- Beautifully written by Yvette Poshoglian, the best-selling author of the Ella and Olivia series.
- For fans of Deltora Quest and Nevermoor fantasy series.

The first book from the brand new and pun-tastic Delicious Duos series, Mac & Cheese: The Origin Story explores the heartfelt and hilarious story behind the iconic pair! Mac was a friendly Noodle from Pastaland and rubbed elbows with everyone. But he didn't have the one thing he wanted most: a friend. So one day, he packs up and goes on an epic journey that takes him across the Sea of Snacks, to the Isle of Candy, through the Desert of Dessert, and beyond Mount Cheddar, until he finds himself in ... Quesoland. In Quesoland, Cheese was king. And while he could be a real crowd-pleaser, he didn't have the one thing he wanted most: a friend. When a mysterious and hilarious newcomer from Pastaland arrives, Cheese wonders if Mac might be who he was looking for all this time. Join Mac and Cheese in their search for true friendship, told through Michael Benner's hilarious, heartwarming text, and Alison Hawkins' endearing, delightful visuals! Perfect for the youngest readers, this funny and sweet read-aloud will ensure a goud-a time!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- This new book is sure to appeal to kids and parents who enjoyed the Food Group series.
- Alison Hawkins' big-eyed anthropomorphic characters are too cute to resist!
- Kids LOVE mac and cheese! Parents of picky eaters AND picky readers will rejoice at this easy to swallow tender-hearted friendship story.
- This is Michael Benner's debut picture book, and with a second book about Milk & Cookies underway, we are excited to build out a fun series with huge kid-appeal!

The second book in a new series from blockbuster Warriors author Erin Hunter about two orphaned cat sisters who discover a secret world of magical creatures ... and the humans who are out to control them. Willow and Luna have always relied on each other to survive in the city. But when the sisters stumbled on a hidden world of magical animals and human witches, they realised they were no ordinary cats. They have magic themselves. Now, for the first time, they must forge their own paths. Willow is on the run with Violet, a witch girl with whom she shares a powerful bond. But Violet's parents, the Rousseaus, are determined to hunt them down and destroy Willow. Meanwhile, Luna is reeling from a deadly attack by the same Rousseaus. She and her fellow Renegades are driven to join forces with the Truthtellers, a sinister coven of animals with secrets of their own. As tensions explode into magical conflict, Willow and Luna must grapple with the same question ... What if your worst enemy is your own sister?

When young rugby star Rawiri is knocked unconscious during a school rugby game, his world shatters. He wakes up in hospital with a broken leg and severe concussion and fears he will never play rugby again. Despite his fear of horses, everything changes when he goes to his aunt's riding centre for therapy and meets Pegasus, a stunning pure white horse, who wins him over, with the help of Mia, a teenage volunteer. As Pegasus helps strengthen Ra's body, Mia and Aunty Aroha also help him cope with the frightening images still playing in his mind.

When a crisis strikes the riding centre, Rawiri must confront his deepest fears to protect the people and animals he has grown to love. Pegasus guides Ra through the dangers and helps him realise that courage isn't the absence of fear, but the choice to confront it anyway.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- This companion title to Eye of the Dragon was inspired by the rehabilitation work done by the Riding for the Disabled Association.
- Having suffered a devastating head injury herself, Susan Brocker writes with real understanding of the associated issues.
- As well as overcoming fears, the story also deals with themes of bullying and friendship.
- The reader is left wondering whether Pegasus is a real or mystical horse, or whether his feats were all in Rawiri's imagination.
- The second in a series showing how animals can help children cope with challenges in their lives.

Fall in love with Two Hearts—romantic fiction for young hearts.

Sibel is so over her traditional parents and their strict rules. No make-up. No parties. No fun. All she wants is to spend the summer with her two besties, but instead she has to spend it with her old aunt on a boring island off Istanbul. When Ardy's grandfather dies, Ardy and his dad travel from Sydney to Istanbul for the funeral. Ardy is sad, of course, but he can't help thinking this is an opportunity for a plan. He loves a good plan: find the stray dog his family fell in love with years ago. Before the divorce. Before his dad became so unhappy. Ardy's plan starts to unravel when he's sent to stay on the same island as Sibel. When the two meet, Sibel sees it as her chance to make her own plan: Ardy can help her get to her friend's holiday home, in exchange for helping him find his stray dog. Simple enough. But sometimes life doesn't come with a plan. Especially when it comes to love.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Brand-new, gorgeous, clean middle-grade romance for 10–14-year-olds who want to be part of the BookTok YA romance phenomenon but are too young.

Perfect for fans of Powerless, this is a gripping tale of the battle to survive a deadly tournament to win the wish your heart most desires. When Talia unwittingly steals cursed jewels from a powerful Soulweaver, she pays the ultimate price: the Soulweaver takes her sister's soul. Desperate to save her sister, Talia strikes a deal. She will enter a deadly, magical tournament and if she survives, she will claim the prize of a wish—the only payment the Soulweaver will accept in exchange for the return of her sister. But the tournament can only be won in pairs and Talia is paired with Taron who wants nothing to do with her. But they must find a way to work together if they are going to make it through the deadly trials alive. And as Talia's feelings for Taron grow, the stakes get even higher and the ultimate price might be her heart.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A heart-pounding YA romantasy about a girl who is willing to sacrifice everything to bring her sister back from the dead.
- Prepare for swoon like never before, with slow-burn #EnemiesToLovers tension throughout.
- Perfect for fans of The Hunger Games. A Wish So Deadly marks the debut of an outstanding new voice in YA fantasy.

Meet T-Rex-turned-life-coach Tony Rex. No matter who you are, or what you're going through, or how fast you're running, Tony Rex is right behind you. Tony's seven-stomp program will help you become your best self, with advice like: DON'T HIDE AWAY (really, stay out in the open where he can spot you) and SLOW DOWN (he'd recommend anything below his top speed of 45 km/h). So follow along, and remember: nothing can change the fact that you're highly nutritious. Packed with prehistoric pep talks, dino-sized confidence, and tongue-in-cheek tips for life's biggest challenges, this book will motivate little ones to stomp their way to success—and away from the giant dinosaur trying to eat them!

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- A hilarious spoof self-help picture book that will have kids and grown-ups roaring with laughter!
- Features Tony Rex, a T-Rex life coach, whose 'killer' tips have a prehistoric twist, as he dishes out motivational advice.
- Combines humour and dinosaurs, two perennial favourites for young readers.
- Filled with tongue-in-cheek life lessons that cleverly parody self-help and motivational books.

Kristy's newest baby-sitting charge is Susan Felder, who goes away to a special school. Susan isn't like most kids. While she can play the piano and sing beautifully ... she can't talk to anyone. Susan is autistic. She lives locked inside her own secret world. Kristy thinks it's unfair that Susan has to be sent off to school and is treated differently from everyone else. But Kristy's going to try to change that—by showing everyone that Susan's a 'regular' kid, too. And then maybe Kristy's new friend can stay in Stoneybrook for good.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

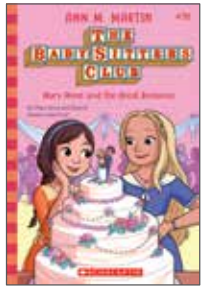

- The iconic series returns with a brand new look and a Netflix TV show!
- The book introduces an autistic child, and explores themes of understanding, acceptance and inclusion.
- Kristy challenges the way Susan is treated and proves that she deserves to be part of the community, highlighting empathy, advocacy, and social acceptance.

Format:	PAPERBACK	Page Count:	320 PP

From New York Times best-selling author Mackenzi Lee comes a thrilling tale set in the world of the Masters of the Universe live-action film, where Eternian warrior Teela must decide how much she's willing to sacrifice to save the people—and home—she loves.

A Fallen kingdom. A Forbidden alliance. A Magic that could Save— Or Destroy—Them all. Four years after Skeletor decimated the kingdom of Eternos, Teela and the scattered refugees of Eternia survive by never staying in one place for long. When a brutal storm of acidic rain deep within the Evergreen Forest leaves their camp ravaged and hope at its thinnest, some, like Teela's friend Locke, begin to plan for a future beyond Eternia. But Teela knows her father, Duncan, the once-mighty Man-At-Arms, won't survive leaving the land he swore to protect. Desperate to save her people, Teela ventures to Darksmoke to bargain with the ancient dragon Granamyr. He bestows upon her a vial filled with a mysterious, powerful elixir—and no instructions on its use. Enter Evil-Lyn, Skeletor's ruthless second-in-command, who intercepts Teela with a dangerous proposal: an alliance. In exchange for the vial's secrets, Teela and the Heroic Warriors must someday help the sorceress overthrow Skeletor himself. The vial heals the sick and brings food back to empty tables—until the forest around the camp begins to change. Rivers vanish. Trees peel to bone. Creatures flee. As the land around them withers at an ever-increasing pace, Teela must confront an impossible question: Has the very magic she used to save her people doomed Eternia instead?

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Masters of the Universe (MoTU) will energise a new generation of fans as it prepares to release all-new content, including a theatrical release by Sony and an animated television series on Netflix.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- The toys are back! And this time … it's toys meets tech! Toy Story 5 released in cinemas in June 2026.
- Disney and Pixar's Toy Story 5, the fifth chapter in one of the most beloved franchises in movie history, pulled in an estimated $312 million worldwide in its debut weekend, including $160 million in the USA and $152 million overseas. The film—which reunites Woody (Tom Hanks), Buzz Lightyear (Tim Allen), Jessie (Joan Cusack), and the rest of the gang as they come face-to-face with Lilypad (Greta Lee), a brand-new tablet—marked the biggest global opening of 2026 and the second-largest animated debut of all time domestically behind another Pixar film, 2018's The Incredibles 2. It is the biggest opening weekend in franchise history globally.
- Toy Story has been a fan-favourite brand since the first film's release in 1995. Raising generations of children to cherish their toys, this beloved brand still holds a special place in fans' hearts.
