Method of entry

To enter, participants must tell us, in 50 words or less, if you could create an App, what capabilities it would have. Create an image of their own App Icon and name it.

Scholastic asks each entrant to seek approval from their parent or guardian before entering the competition.

Winners will be notified via email. The winners' names will also be published on the Scholastic LIARS webpage at scholastic.com.au/liars. The Grand Prize winner will have their entry featured on this website at the conclusion of the competition.

Judging

Judging will take place at the Promoter's premises two weeks after the date of closure for each book's question, and the grand prize winner will be selected on 14 December 2019, at midnight AEST. (This is a game of skill; chance plays no part in determining the winners). Each entry will be judged on its creative merit. The judges' decision in relation to any aspect of the competition will be final and binding on every person who enters. No correspondence will be entered into.

Please note: Scholastic Australia will not pass on your personal details to any third party. Personal details are only used for the identification of winners.

Postage

The promoter will be responsible for delivery of the prize to the winners. Delivery of the prize may take up to six weeks.

Other

All elements of the prize are subject to availability with no cash alternative and the prize is non-transferable and non-refundable. If the prize or portion of the prize is unavailable, for whatever reason, the Promoter reserves the right to substitute the prize with a prize of equal or greater value.

Good luck!
