Meredith Costain is a versatile writer whose work ranges from picture books through to novels, poetry and non-fiction.

Her books have won awards and been adapted for television. Her picture books include The Cuddliest Hug and Mummies are Lovely. Her series of novels Ella Diaries (with illustrations by Danielle McDonald) has had books shortlisted for two children's choice awards and been translated into many different languages. Her latest series about Ella's younger sister is called Olivia's Secret Scribbles.

Meredith lives in an old stone house in inner-city Melbourne with a menagerie of pets, who frequently wrangle their way into her stories and poems.

REVIEWS

Ella Diaries: 'I can see girls giggling behind their hands as they read these books. I love this series. It's clever, artistic and very girlie.'—Susan Whelan, Kids' Book Review

Ella Diaries: 'With other titles in the series already released and more pending, girls are going to get hooked!'—Emily Meldrum, Children's Book Council of Australia, Reading Time
