Jules Faber is both an award-winning children's book illustrator and award-winning cartoonist. With author Anh Do he won the 2014 Book of the Year for Older Children at the Australian Book Industry Awards with WeirDo. His versatility as an artist means he has worked in a variety of different fields including as an editorial cartoonist, a 'live' caricaturist, an editor of an award-winning comic series, an animator on a Disney program and has taught Comic Book Illustration and Scriptwriting and Storyboarding for TAFE.

He has served almost four terms as the President of the Australian Cartoonists Association and in 2017 was voted Best Children's Book Illustrator at the prestigious Stanley Awards. He has also won three Rotary Cartoon Awards, Australia's biggest International cartooning competition. Jules has illustrated covers and interiors for over 28 books and continues to work on the award-winning WeirDo series with comedian author Anh Do.

He is married with an 11 year old daughter who loves cats.
