Heath McKenzie has illustrated countless books for children, across a wide range of genres. What do Werewolves do when it's not Halloween? was Heath's first project as both author and illustrator, followed shortly by I Wanna Be a Pretty Princess. He's also illustrated Anh Do's There's a Big Green Frog in the Toilet and Soccerroo Tim Cahill's Tiny Timmy series.

Heath McKenzie's work is entirely freehand while also being entirely digital. He does his very best to keep it as 'real' as possible and tends to be successful at that more often than not.

When not drawing he's busily helping raise a little family with his lovely wife, collecting an unnecessary amount of toys, books and dvds, indulging in a spot of Doctor Who and attempting occasionally ambitious culinary feats in the kitchen. He also enjoys possibly a bit too much tea.

Heath lives in Melbourne, with his wife, two kids, dog, and a fish that he considers more of a lodger than a family member.
