

Tull Suwannakit

Illustrator

PUBLICATIONS

Thimble, 2018

The Little Stowaway, 2018

Stanley's Playing the Trumpet, 2017

Tull Suwannakit is a Melbourne-based, children' book author and illustrator and a visual artist, with backgrounds in animation and fine art. Tull began his artistic career as a set designer and character sculptor for an independent animation studio in New York, USA. Since then, his work has been exhibited both locally and internationally, including The National Museum, Szczecin in Poland and included as part of The Australian Children's Book Illustration Exhibition and Rights Catalogue in Bologna, Italy.

What Happens Next? (Walker Books Australia and UK) was featured in Sydney Morning Herald, ABC Mornings Radio, Playschool on ABC4Kids, and was shortlisted for 2015 Speech Pathology Australia Book of the Year Award. His illustrated picture book, Sad, The Dog (Walker Books, Australia and Candlewick Press, USA) written by Sandy Fussell gained positive reviews from the Age, Sydney Morning Herald and The New York Times.

LINKS

Website: www.tullsuwannakit.net

