They adore—okay fine, are obsessed with—their three dogs Mya, Harlow and Bambi and inhale chocolate like it's a lifestyle. They live in Sydney, and live in denial about the fact they'll have to grow up one day. #GettingOlderShouldComeWithAWarning

For six years they owned and operated their children's entertainment company, Happily Ever Laughter bringing joy and magic to children... partly so they could spend their weekends dressed as fairies and princesses. They studied their love of writing at The University of Technology, Sydney. They enjoy creating unique and lovable characters that inspire kids to dream big, because where's the fun in dreaming small?

An epic fantasy set in a land of sultans and kings, sumptuous palaces... and slave markets. When Elowen and her brother are seized by pirates and sold, separately, in the slave market of a distant land, Elowen's enduring resolve is to escape, rescue her brother and return home.

Sold to a desert ruler who admires her sublime voice, Elowen is given the title of the King's Nightingale. Honoured by the king, and loved by his scribe, Elowen lives a life of luxury, until she makes a fateful mistake and finds herself sold to a less charitable master.

SALES POINTS:

- A compelling story with themes about oppression, racism, gender equality, love and loyalty.
- Jordan's descriptive writing is superb—evoking the sights, smells and sounds of the bazaars and palace life of a distant time.
- Readers will admire the strong female protagonist.
- By the author of many much-acclaimed titles such as Winter of Fire, The Raging Quiet and Tanith.

Disney's Villains meet Gotham in this gritty fairytale-inspired crime series. Mary Elizabeth Heart is a high school senior by day, but by night she's an intern at the Monarch City police department. She watches with envy from behind a desk as detectives come and go, trying to contain the city's growing crime rate. For years, tension has simmered between the city's wealthy elite, and their plans to gentrify the decaying neighbourhood called the Scar—once upon a time the epicentre of all things magic. When the daughter of one of the city's most powerful businessmen goes missing, Mary Elizabeth is thrilled when the Chief actually puts her on the case. But what begins as one missing person's report soon multiplies, leading her down the rabbit hole of a city in turmoil. There she finds a girl with horns, a boyfriend with secrets and what seems to be a sea monster lurking in a poison lake. As the mystery circles closer to home, Mary Elizabeth is caught in the fight between those who once had magic, and those who will do anything to bring it back. This dark and edgy YA series explores the reimagined origins of Maleficent, Ursula, Captain Hook and other infamous Disney Villains like you've never seen before.
