Peace has come to Pyrrhia ... for now. The war between the tribes is finally over, and now the dragonets of the prophecy have a plan for lasting peace: Jade Mountain Academy, a school that will gather dragonets from all the tribes and teach them to live together, perhaps even as friends. Moonwatcher isn't sure how she feels about school, however. Hidden in the rainforest for most of her life, the young NightWing has an awful secret. She can read minds, and even see the future. Living in a cave with dozens of other dragons is noisy, exhausting—and dangerous. In just a few days, Moon finds herself overwhelmed by her secret powers and bombarded by strange thoughts, including those of a mysterious dragon who might be a terrible enemy. Damian's family shows up at their new home, and no one is happy about it. They are living under witness protection now that Dad, a powerful gangster, has turned Queen's evidence. Now they are expected to live in a cramped flat in a run-down council estate—they are fish out of water, having got used to the privileges and wealth that had come with Dad's job. And Dad's current moods and bad temper aren't helping matters one bit. It's summertime, and Damian—'Finn'—is soon introduced to the neighbourhood kids, and is pressured early on to bully local boy Tel. 'Finn' refuses, and comes to befriend Tel, who by night is costumed crime-fighter Star Kid! Star Kid is on a mission to help free the estate from local gangster extortionist Ronnie. (Despite this problem, their neighbours on the estate are mostly good, with a strong sense of community.) Tel recruits Finn to his superhero team, and Star Kid and Moon Boy manage to get rid of Ronnie in a bugging-sting-gone-wrong exercise. But then Finn is horrified to discover that someone else has stepped into the protection racket and terrorising the estate: it's Dad!

Joined by Kristoff, Sven and Olaf, Anna reunites with Elsa in the Enchanted Forest. After a night of spooky stories around the campfire, Olaf swears that one of the creatures from their tales has come to life! Who else could be responsible for the sudden onset of storms and the earlier-than-normal darkening of the skies? Why else is everyone starting to become so forgetful? Anna and Elsa join forces to determine what is going on. Together they recall Kristoff's terrifying tale about a princess who turned into a draugr—an undead creature that steals memories to make others forget the misdeeds it committed when it was alive. Is it possible that Kristoff inadvertently unearthed memories of a draugr and thus unleashed the monster upon Arendelle? Anna and Elsa must uncover the real story behind the tale before everyone in Arendelle forgets who they are and their world is cast into darkness forever ...
