NAME: JAMES FOLEY

OCCUPATION: CHILDREN'S BOOK WRITER

WHEREABOUTS: [REDACTED]

ASSESSMENT: DANGEROUSLY FUNNY

Hi, I'm James Foley. I'm a kids' author and illustrator based in Walyalup / Fremantle, WA.

You may know my name from books such as Stellarphant, Toffle Towers, Chickensaurus and My Dead Bunny. Secret Agent Mole is my first graphic novel series with Scholastic.

It's a combo of all my favourite spy shows—James Bond, Get Smart, Austin Powers—crossed with humour and action. Our main character Max Mole is short, bald, cheeky and wears glasses, so, uh, nothing like me at all cough. I can't wait to share the series with readers!

Aside from books, I'm busy being a dad to two young'uns (aged 5 and 18 months), and a husband to author Renae Hayward. We have a Labrador called Frankie who sheds a cubic ton of fur every three hours; she has clogged up three robovacs this year so far. I've also been on the committee for our local Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators since 2012 in various roles, including Regional Advisor. I'm a massive Marvel movie fan, a half-decent singer and an avid kayaker.

Cory's dance crew is getting ready for a major competition. It's the last one before they graduate eighth grade and go their separate ways to high schools all over New York City, so they have to make it count! The group starts to have problems as their crew captain gets increasingly intense about nailing the routine, and things go from bad to worse when Cory's parents ground him for not taking his grades seriously. He gets stuck with a new tutor, Sunna, who he dismisses as a boring nerd... until he catches her secretly practicing cool yo-yo tricks. Cory wants to learn the art of yo-yo, and as his friendship with Sunna grows, he ends up missing practice and bailing on his crew—and they are not happy about it. With mounting pressure coming from all sides, how is Cory supposed to balance the expectations of his parents, school, dance, and his new friend?

SALES POINTS:

- After adapting four BSC graphic novels, Gale Galligan is now creating original middle-grade graphic novels for Graphix!
- BSC Graphix #5–8 were all instant USA Today and New York Times bestsellers.
- Perfect for fans of middle-grade contemporary graphic novels, this is a fun, commercial, and humorous school-based story about friendship, family, and the last hurrahs of middle school!
- FREESTYLE will appeal to fans of slice-of-life sports manga.

When Tobias and his friends were given the power to morph, they were also given an important warning: Never stay in a morph for more than two hours. But Tobias broke the time limit, and now he's trapped in the body of a hawk ... forever. When he discovers an important Yeerk secret, Tobias knows he has to do everything in his power to destroy it. But to do so, he'll have to contend with a part of himself that's wrestling for dominion. A part that isn't human. For Tobias, the fight against the Yeerks is more pressing than ever — not just for humankind, but for his own humanity.

SALES POINTS:

- ANIMORPHS was the best-selling sci-fi series of an era, with millions of copies in print, a TV show, and extremely devoted fans.
- The Invasion received rave reviews and has sold nicely. We're positioned well to build this series.
- Chris Grine has done an incredible job adapting—he masterfully captures the excitement and humour of the original books.
- Animorphs is full of exciting action, bizarre aliens, and the fantasy of being able to become some of the most amazing animals on the planet ... but it's also a series of astonishing depth and emotional richness. That combination is what's kept its fans engaged for decades!

A laugh out loud, rapid-fire story about imperfect families, enemies, friends, and loyalty. Earl Grey, 12, is growing up in rural Australia. He loves his family, even though his parents aren't the sharpest knives in the drawer, and his sister was once mistaken for an alpaca. But with his best mate Bruiser by his side, Earl can navigate almost any situation. The question is: can Earl outrun his arch nemesis, Division A basketball captain Slam Dunk, before he's beaten to a pulp? To stand a chance, Earl decides he'll need a solar-powered racing caravan with rocket boosters. When he takes a job shovelling horse poo at the racecourse for a mobster who quit the mafia to take up antiques, Earl learns the value of good connections and finds out how far $27 goes towards a survival plan.

SALES POINTS:

- Hilarious middle grade fiction.
- Written by an English teacher to engage her students.
- Original and clever use of satire and farce.
- Explores issues such as going on first dates, surviving school camp and dealing with school bullies in a humorous way.

This is the story of the Lynch family. Niall and Mór escaped their homeland for a new start, and lost themselves in what they found. Declan has grown up as the responsible son, the responsible brother--only to find there is no way for him to keep his family safe. Ronan has always lived on the edge between dreams and waking... but now that edge is gone, and he is falling. Matthew has been the happy child, the brightest beam. But rebellion beckons, because it all feels like an illusion now. This world was not made for such a family--a family with the power to make a world and break it. If they cannot save each other or themselves, we are all doomed.

SALES POINTS:

- There are over a million copies of Maggie Stiefvater's Raven Cycle and Dreamer Trilogy in print
- The first two books in the trilogy, Call Down the Hawk and Mister Impossible, debuted high on the New York Times bestseller list

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T WANT TO DIE

AU RRP: $16.99

NZ RRP: $19.99

Author: PETER LANTOS
 Publisher: SCHOLASTIC UK
 ISBN: 9781761299643
 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: NOVEL
 Age Level: 10+
 Dimensions: 198 X 128 MM
 Page Count: 224 PP

The Boy Who Didn't Want to Die describes an extraordinary journey, made by Peter, a boy of five, through war-torn Europe in 1944 and 1945. Peter and his parents set out from a small Hungarian town, travelling through Austria and then Germany together. Along the way, unforgettable images of adventure flash one after another, catching butterflies in the meadows—and as Peter realises that this adventure is really a nightmare—watching bombs falling from the blue sky outside Vienna, learning maths from his mother in Belsen. All this is drawn against a background of terror, starvations, infection, and inevitable, death, before Peter and his mother can return home.

SALES POINTS:

- A beautiful, heart-wrenching true account of a young boy's journey across war-torn Europe during World War II.
- A story of survival, of love between mother and son and of enduring hope in the face of unspeakable hardship.
- Professor Peter Lantos was awarded the British Empire Medal in 2020 for services to Holocaust education and awareness, The Boy Who Didn't Want to Die will be his first children's book.
- An important read for all, similar titles include The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas and When the Sky Falls.

ESCAPE FROM EAST BERLIN

AU RRP: $15.99

NZ RRP: $19.99

Author: ANDY MARINO
 Publisher: SCHOLASTIC INC
 ISBN: 9781761293542
 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: NOVEL
 Age Level: 8+
 Dimensions: 194 X 133 MM

December, 1961—Marta is a young girl who saw thirty miles of barbed wire appear across her city overnight, separating Berlin into West and East—with Marta's home on the Communist Bloc-controlled eastern side.

January, 1989—Now a spray-painted concrete monolith, the Berlin Wall bisects the city. Kurt, a young East Berliner, often wonders what those living on the other side must think of their unseen neighbors. Do they hate the people of East Germany as completely as Kurt has been instructed to hate them?

Inspired by real events, Escape from East Berlin tells two stories of daring bids for freedom from the Eastern Bloc, set decades apart and relayed in alternating perspectives. Triumph and tragedy intertwine in this examination of both the earliest and final days of the Berlin Wall.

SALES POINTS:

- A new historical fiction thriller from Andy Marino, the author of Escape from Chernobyl and The Plot to Kill Hitler series.
- A riveting thriller for readers aged 8+ inspired by real events.
- Set in alternating decades—1961 and 1989—this historical thriller tells of two daring attempts at freedom from the Eastern Bloc.

Young Joe is living in pre-WWII Berlin, with his British father and NZ mother, attending school and witnessing the excitement of his friends who are enthusiastically joining the Hitler Youth Movement. Joe feels uncomfortable with the growing mistreatment of local Jews, and after the arrest of his father as a spy, he is forced to escape from Berlin with his mother. Joe is separated from his mother and evacuated to New Zealand, and, while war looms in Europe, he is frustrated by his distance from the action, and his inability to do anything about finding his father. After a harrowing route back to Europe, Joe attempts to infiltrate the Hitler Youth movement in Germany while at the same time searching for his mother and father in wartime Berlin.

The astonishing journey of teenager Joseph St George (Katipo Joe) continues. Recruited by MI5, this time Joe is on a mission to infiltrate an elite group of Hitler Youth. In a world where one wrong word could bring catastrophe, he must compete with the other young people for a prize beyond his wildest dreams. But the consequences of failure are torture and death.

From the war-torn skies over Germany to the heights of the Eagle's Nest—Hitler's hideaway—this is Joe's story. Set amidst actual events, Joe's story is a tale of incredible heroism, unlikely romance and unbearable tragedy.

A fang-tastically funny story of an unlikely friendship. Maggie Helsby may be descended from a long line of vampire slayers, but that won't stop her being friends with vegetarian vampire Sharptooth Shadow. While she's introducing Sharptooth to the delights of school, she gets to hang out at wonderfully creepy Skeleton Castle on the weekend. Until the enchantments that keep the castle hidden start to mysteriously weaken—and a whole host of other, far less friendly, magical creatures arrive in town to cause trouble, along with a monster hunter determined to put a stop to anything supernatural ...

SALES POINTS:

- Witch Wars meets Buffy the Vampire Slayer.
- A funny and warm story of friendship and acceptance.
- Perfect as a spooky Halloween read for readers aged 9+.

Oscar, ever the miniature grown-up his mum needs him to be, decides to take something he wants ... even though he knows it's wrong. Stanley is newly dumped, stuck in a dead-end job for a mysterious employer and unable to connect with anyone. And Devon, abandoned by his dad and ignored by his mum, can't understand why love and friendship come so easily to everyone except him. Unfortunately, in the callous world of Five Nights at Freddy's, it's always in the depths of loneliness when evil creeps in.

In this volume, three stories from the New York Times best-selling series Five Nights at Freddy's: Fazbear Frights come to life in delightfully horrifying comics. Readers beware: this collection of terrifying tales is enough to unsettle even the most hardened Five Nights at Freddy's fans.

SALES POINTS:

- Adapted from the New York Times best-selling series Fazbear Frights.
- All three FNAF GNs have been New York Times Bestsellers!
- A Freddy's movie is currently in production with Blumhouse.
- Brand is a top performer—Freddy has 30 licensee partners to date.

Have you ever experienced a gut feeling that told you something was wrong? ... Caden senses the underwater animatronics in Freddy's Fantasy Water Park have a mind of their own. Robbie knows deep down that the minds of the members of the Fazbear Fan Club have been taken over by something. And Abe can't shake the feeling that the animatronic assistants in his Fazplex Tower apartment are hiding things from him. But in the world of Five Nights at Freddy's, when something feels wrong, it's often too late to do anything about it ...

In this fourth volume, Five Nights at Freddy's creator Scott Cawthon spins three sinister novella-length tales from uncharted corners of his series' canon. Readers beware: this collection of terrifying tales is enough to rattle even the most hardened Five Nights at Freddy's fans.

SALES POINTS:

From #1 New York Times best-selling author Alan Gratz (Refugee, Ground Zero) comes an all-new, original Captain America graphic novel! In this thrilling historical adventure set during World War II, Steve Rogers (AKA Captain America) and his young sidekick, Bucky Barnes, encounter a threat like they've never seen—a Ghost Army. The dead of this war and wars past are coming back to life, impervious to bullets, flames or anything else the Allies can throw at them. The armies rise from the ground in the night and seem to disappear without a trace. How can Cap and Buck fight something that's already dead? And just what does the mysterious Baron Mordo—sitting in his castle atop nearby Wundagore Mountain—have to do with this? Alan Gratz merges the worlds of historical fiction and super hero comics in this one-of-a-kind graphic novel that is sure to be met with major enthusiasm from fans of all ages.

SALES POINTS:

It's bedtime for Baby Raccoon, and Mama Raccoon has come to sing him a song. Star is here to say goodnight too! As Mama sings, Star creates constellations to illustrate the song. Soon, Baby Raccoon is fast asleep. Soothing illustrations and rhyming lyrics help little ones calm down for bedtime. As your little one grows, encourage them to trace the constellations with their finger and count the stars on each page.

This is a happy face, this is a sleepy face, this is an angry face, this is a surprised face ... Happy, sleepy, angry, SURPRISED! This colourful and rhythmic sturdy board book introduces toddlers and pre-schoolers to eight essential emotions: happy, sleepy, angry, surprised, excited, sad, nervous and silly. Characters from Super Simple's Noodle & Pals show off each emotion with bold facial expressions, but wait for the surprise at the end—a mirror, so readers can make their own faces!

SALES POINTS:

- Dino Ranch aims to teach kids about friendship, teamwork and, of course, dinosaurs.
- First broadcast on Disney Jr in Q2 2021, Dino Ranch was a pre-school smash hit!
- Dinosaurs continue to be an evergreen topic across all channels, making this new brand a perfect fit for Scholastic's list.
- Features a diverse cast of characters and focuses on wholesome, social emotional messages, making it an excellent brand for pre-schoolers and younger primary school kids and families.
