Marlee Silva

Marlee Silva is from the Gamilaroi and Dunghutti tribes of NSW. She is a skilled speaker, author, activist, podcaster and presenter. Starting her career in the non-profit sector, Marlee's path shifted when she was employed as the Co-CEO of Aboriginal education charity AIME Mentoring - a role which saw her shadow the work of AIME's CEO and act as the representative of the organisation's story and direction, in the media and through keynote speaking. It also gave her the opportunity to study at Stanford University in the USA, making her the first Aboriginal woman to do so.

After publishing her first book 'My Tidda, My Sister: Stories of Strength and Resilience from Australia's First Women' in 2020, Marlee expanded her media reach with appearances on NITV's January 26th Sunrise Ceremony, ABC's Q+A, as well as appearing on Today Extra. She now features with NRL on Nine.

Marlee uses her storytelling skills to inspire and create change, and advocate for the causes she is most passionate about, which saw her named as a finalist in the Australian Human Rights Commission 'Young People's Human Rights Medal' in 2019. She has a focus on First Nations people and community, women in sport and various social issues. She also has a passion for sports, rapidly becoming one of the country's leading voices on women's sport, particularly Rugby League.

Rhys Paddick

Yamatji man, Rhys Paddick is a storyteller, artist and expert in cultural desensitivation - how to explore and connect with Aboriginal peoples and cultures with courage, excitement and joy, as opposed to facilitating cultural change from the all too common place of shame, guilt and fear.

Rhys specialises in moving people and businesses out of ticking boxes into a place of authenticity. As a storyteller and artist, Rhys takes from his 15+ years of working with and for Aboriginal people and organisations, and has designed and delivered multiple workshops, trainings and keynotes all in an effort to connect fellow Australians to our common cultures.

Daring mission... or deadly mistake.

Winter has always been a disappointment to his royal IceWing family. Now he has a chance to save his sister, Icicle, from making a terrible mistake — if he can find her. Winter's new clawmates, Moon, Kinkajou and Qibli, insist on joining his dangerous journey. They don't understand that IceWings, the most superior of all dragon tribes, can fix their own problems. When their search leads the dragonets straight into Queen Scarlet's vicious talons, Winter is grateful to have some help. But even the bravest dragons can't follow him to the Ice Kingdom. There, he'll be alone to face the greatest threat of all: his own family.

SECRET AGENT 6th GRADER

From the creator of Kid YouTube

MARCUS EMERSON

My name is Brody Valentine (please don't make fun of my last name), and this is the story of how I accidentally became a 6th grade secret agent at my school. My life is plain and boring, but I do my best to keep it that way. That's why when a dangerous secret fell into my lap, I wasn't exactly jumping for joy. Everything I knew to be true was completely flipped around and suddenly I've found myself buried in special codes and conspiracies. Now I'm being hunted because my brain knows a secret so huge your head would explode if you heard it.

Nathaniel Fox never imagined he'd find himself in the middle of a blood-soaked battlefield, fighting for his life. He's only eleven-years-old! He's barely paid attention to the troubles between America and England. Instead, he's been worked to the bone by his cruel uncle. But when his uncle's rage forces him to flee home suddenly, Nate finds himself in New York City, in the middle of the American Revolution. He encounters an old friend and joins his army regiment as a camp helper. Soon the British invade—and nothing goes as planned. Can Nate survive the war's biggest battle yet? Lauren Tarshis's New York Times best-selling I Survived series comes to vivid life in graphic novel editions. Perfect for readers who prefer the graphic novel format, or for existing fans of the I Survived chapter book series, these graphic novels combine historical facts with high-action storytelling that's sure to keep any reader turning the pages. Includes a nonfiction section at the back with facts and photos about the real-life event.

SALES POINTS:

- The I Survived Graphix line is going strong, with phenomenal sales of the first six books (more than 900,000 net sales in Trade since the series debut in 2020; 2.3 million across all Channels) and glowing feedback from educators, readers and reviewers.
- The Revolutionary War is a perennial topic of study in school for our target readers, 8-12-year-olds.
- American Revolution continues to bring the I Survived (Graphix) series further back in history following Chicago Fire after the first six stories were set in the 20th and 21st centuries.
- Graphic novel format is perfect for the series' target audience of reluctant and fragile readers and should also attract a brand-new audience of graphic novel fans.
- Reader engagement: I Survived has its own island on Home Base.

Nicky has disappeared.

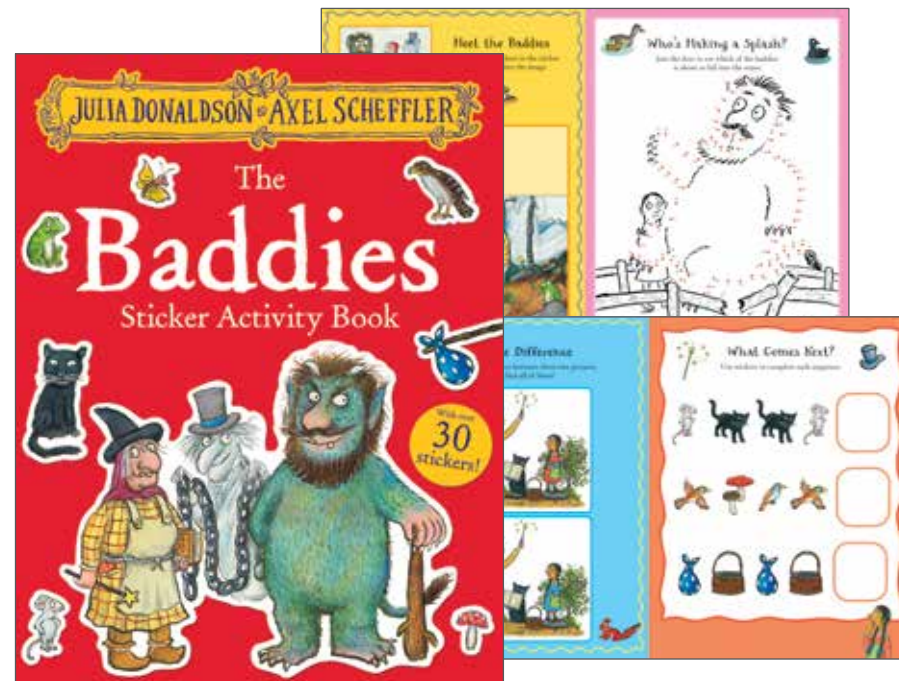

Olivia, Leo, and Gracie were the last ones to see him on their seventh-grade field trip before he went missing. They don't want him back with their group—he's the school bully, and none of them like him—but they each have their own secret reason for needing to find him as soon as possible. And they are sure there are clues the police are overlooking.

When they decide to investigate, they quickly discover that things are more complicated than they seemed. Nicky's victims made a plan to get revenge on him—a plan that's gone terribly wrong. Can they find out where Nicky is, or is it already too late to stop this revenge from going way too far?

From the author of I Know Your Secret, this is a thriller that's full of secrets and twists, one that you won't be able to put down.

SALES POINTS:

- From Daphne Benedis-Grab, author of I Know Your Secret and I Know You're Lying, comes another gripping middle-grade thriller.
- Both a page-turning read and a thoughtful look at bullying, revenge and the true meaning of punishment and forgiveness.

Penguin Island is home to a rare population of penguins, separated from the mainland by a narrow strip of land. Trouble is, that strip of land is exposed during low tide, and a pack of foxes has discovered it!

When twelve-year-old Addie realises how vulnerable the penguins are, she decides to act with her faithful sheepdog, Max, by her side. But protecting a colony of penguins isn't easy: Darwin, a young and proud penguin, doesn't want Max's help, and the two can't see eye to eye. Will they be able to compromise and work together to save the colony?

SALES POINTS:

- A heartwarming story of friendship, teamwork and an unlikely duo of adorable animals who prove that anyone can be a hero!
- When a local—and rare—penguin population is threatened, it's up to a girl, a dog and a penguin to protect the colony from danger.
- Michelle Schusterman is the accomplished author of many middle-grade novels including I Heart Band, My Otter Half and The Dog's Meow.
- Themes: family, beach, Australian wildlife, dogs, penguins, conservation, teamwork.

Mother's Day is coming up, and the Baby-sitters have the same problem they do every year: What do they get their mothers? Kristy, especially, wants to do something nice for her mum. Mrs Brewer has been acting kind of strange and secretive lately, and Kristy's worried about her. But then Kristy gets another one of her great ideas. Why don't the Baby-Sitters treat their mums—and the mothers of the kids they sit for—to a day off without any kids around? Together with Stacey, the Baby-sitters plan a gigantic baby-sitting party. It's a Mother's Day surprise that couldn't be beaten ... until ... Kristy's mum reveals a very special surprise of her own.

No one survived the party at the penthouse. Except for Athan. Athanasios Athan Bakirtzis has made it far in life relying on his charm and good looks, even securing an invitation to a mysterious penthouse soiree for New York City's artsy elite. But when he sneaks off to the bathroom, he hears a slam, followed by a scream. Athan peers outside, only to be pushed back in by a boy his age. The boy gravely tells him not to open the door, then closes Athan in. Outside the door, the party descends into chaos. Through hours of howls, laughter and sobs, Athan stays hidden. When he finally emerges, he discovers a massacre where the corpses appear to have arranged themselves into a disturbingly elegant sculpture and Athan's mysterious saviour is nowhere to be found. Athan's the only known survivor and is now the primary suspect. In a race to prove his innocence, Athan is swept up in a supernatural mystery, one of the secret occult societies and deadly eldritch horrors with rather distinctive taste. Something evil is waking up in the walls of New York City, and it's compelling victims toward violence, chaos, and self-destruction. Bound to him by a mysterious hereditary power, Athan has felt this evil hiding behind his reflection his entire life, watching him. Waiting. Now, it's taking over.

SALES POINTS:

- Ryan follows up The Honeys with yet another rich horror fable. Velvet Buzzsaw meets H.P. Lovecraft in this exploration of deadly aesthetics.
- Ryan continues to be a social media superstar and polished showman. He has a devoted online following and is an extremely talented public speaker.
- Beholder is lush with thematic goodness, exploring topics of grief, destiny, class and especially the way beauty—and obsession with beauty—can conceal what's truly in front of us.
- At a time when books by LGBTQIA+ creators face increasingly harsh opposition, Ryan is doubling-down on telling stories of and for the marginalised. Queer themes abound.
- As with the knockout package for The Honeys, Beholder, will get an eerily gorgeous cover treatment that capitalises on the story's themes of eldritch beauty and uncanny reflections.

Aang faces a decision from which there is no return. When Aang, Katara, Sokka and Toph return to Earthen Fire Industries—the factory owned by Toph's father—Aang is surprised when their arrival is met with a cold shoulder. As soon as the team is asked for help at a business council meeting, the reason for the slight becomes clear: a massive bender-versus-non-bender conflict has gripped the town and is threatening to turn violent. In order to heal the divide and save the town, Aang and the team will all face tough decisions about power and identity that could tear them apart. Join writer Faith Erin Hicks (The Adventures of Superhero Girl, The Nameless City) and artist Peter Wartman (Stonebreaker), in collaboration with Avatar: The Last Airbender creators Michael Dante DiMartino and Bryan Konietzko, in this beautiful collection of Imbalance, with a brand-new cover by Peter Wartman and Adele Matera!

Teenager Boo has pink hair and a very vivid imagination that she has trouble separating from the real world. In her daydreams, she dances beautifully at balls or fights monsters as a magical girl. In reality, she has a complicated home life, work stress, school stress and a wicked crush on the girl of her dreams. When a new student, Mimi, arrives at school, Boo starts exploring a side of herself that she never considered before. As she grows closer with Mimi, it may finally be time for Boo to face reality ... Who is the real Mimi? The one in her dreams? Or the one in real life?

Rainbow! is perfect for fans of Heartstopper and Magical Boy, full of heart, adorable illustrations and a storyline that any teenager can relate to!
