SPY ACADEMY THE PEAK

After thwarting a robbery, Nolan Hawker is invited to the world's most dangerous school.

At THE PEAK, he learns to crack codes, fly planes and deceive enemies so he can someday infiltrate the deadly anarchist group known as SWARM.

But someone at the Peak secretly works for Swarm, and they have a plan—the kind no-one walks away from. Can Nolan find the traitor before it's too late?

KAZU KIBUISHI

BOOK NINE
WAVERIDER

After her confrontation with Ikol, Emily finally understands the stone's power and what she must do to defend Alledia from the shadows. As she travels to Typhon to help her mum and Navin, Prince Trellis returns to the Kingdom of the Elves to save his countrymen—and confront the fraud who has seized power in the absence of a king. The threat of darkness follows all Stonekeepers closely, and it will take the strength of both new friends and old foes to conquer it ... and survive.

*We are the luckiest, Elliott's dad told her.
And Elliott, of course, believed him.*

Elliott and her family have lived in the house of a thousand storms by Crooked River all her life, with her best friend, Drake, just a kayak ride downstream. But one ordinary evening, Elliott's parents tell her some shattering news and Elliott realises they are no longer the luckiest. Has it all been a lie?

As Elliott's life is split apart, she stands to lose all the places and the people she calls home. Except Elliott refuses to lose anything. Because if she lets go of everything she loves, Elliott will surely lose herself too.

A heart-wrenching story of loss, love and the things you get to keep from the author of The Other Side of Tomorrow, CBCA Children's Book of the Year Award Honour Book, 2023.

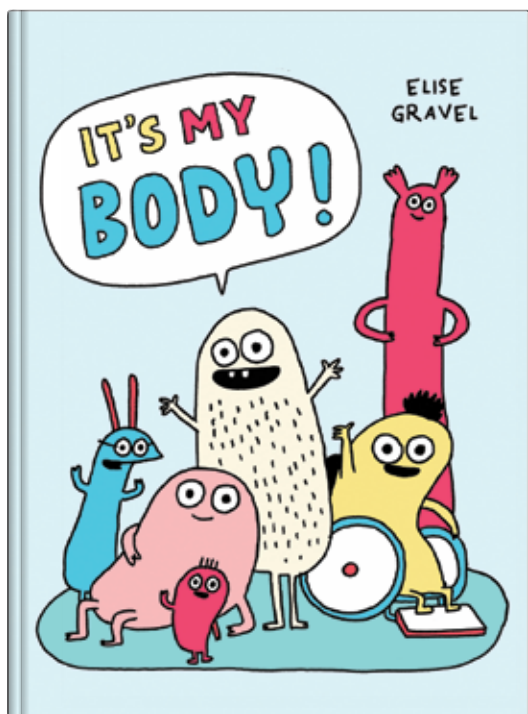

SALES POINTS:

- Poignant new 10+ fiction from critically acclaimed Australian author, Hayley Lawrence.
- 15-year-old Elliott's parents are separating, and she struggles to process and accept the changes this means for her life.
- A pertinent and timely story given approximately 1 in 3 Australian marriages end in divorce.
- Compassionately explores themes of family, divorce and change.

The one thing Nugget, a cute puppy, has ever known to do is love, and his cuteness has always been enough for others to love him back. But when Nugget is put up for adoption, he thinks it's because no one loves him anymore — that he isn't cute anymore. So he does the only thing he can think of: he runs away.

Now Nugget is alone on the streets of Boston, where he quickly learns that not everyone is kind. After an unfortunate run-in with another animal leaves him disfigured, he can't rely on his cuteness to get by like he used to. As Nugget learns to navigate his new life, searching for a new family to give all his love ... will he learn to love himself, too?

SALES POINTS:

- A heart-warming story about a puppy who learns to love himself for what's on the inside.
- A sweet story for animal lovers with a sincere message: love is never ugly.
- M.C. Ross is the author of A Dog's Porpoise and Game Over.

The most powerful earthquake in American history...

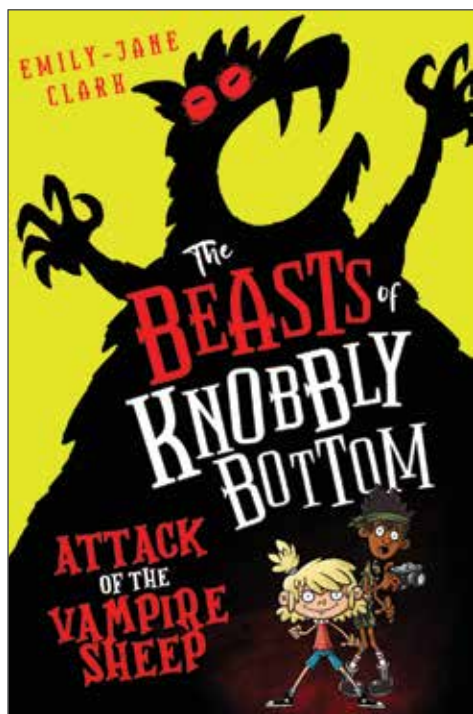

Growing up in the Alaskan wilderness, Jackson has always prided himself on being tough. His family lives in a tiny cabin where their neighbours are grizzlies and wolves. The nearest store is a three-day walk away.

Jackson loves his life ... until a fire destroys the family's cabin, and they have to move to the town of Valdez. Adjusting to fifth grade isn't easy.

And then Jackson has to face an earthquake of terrifying strength. As the ground shatters and tsunami waves crash into the coast, Jackson learns what it really means to be tough.

SALES POINTS:

- When disaster strikes, heroes are made.
- New York Times best-selling author Lauren Tarshis tells the story of the disaster that changed our understanding of earth science—and tested one boy in ways he never could have imagined.

THE BEASTS OF KNOBBLY BOTTOM: ATTACK OF THE VAMPIRE SHEEP

AU RRP: $19.99

NZ RRP: $21.99

Author: EMILY-JANE CLARK

Publisher: SCHOLASTIC UK

ISBN: 9780702325106

Format: PAPERBACK

Type: NOVEL

Age Level: 8+

Dimensions: 198 X 129 MM

Page Count: 288 PP

Maggie McKay is not happy that her mum has decided to move from their flat in Leicester to a house in Knobbly Bottom (the most boring village ever invented). Knobbly Bottom has got no soft play centres, no toy shops and no horse that her mum had (sort of) promised her. There are just fields, church fetes and a bunch of boring old sheep! But Maggie soon discovers that Knobbly Bottom is also full of secrets. The sheep are growing fangs, their eyes are turning red and they're planning to take over the world. When Mum thinks she's just making up another silly story, it's up to Maggie, her little sister, Lily, and their new friend Fred—with the help of a strange old lady called Nan Helsing and some stinky garlic bread—to save Knobbly Bottom from the attack of the vampire sheep!

SALES POINTS:

- A highly illustrated commercial package with a pacey, child-friendly and accessible story bursting with laugh-out-loud humour and instantly relatable characters.
- Emily-Jane Clark's comedy-writing credentials give her real credibility in the funny middle-grade space and she is prepared to be a very engaged author (who already has experience teaching drama to kids).
- Perfect for fans of Aardman Animations and the ideal next step for fans of Pamela Butchart or Grimwood.

MY BRILLIANT PLAN TO FIX EVERYTHING

Type: NOVEL

Age Level: 8+

Dimensions: 198 X 129 MM

A heartfelt, funny novel about a son taking over his father's postal delivery job in the hopes of bringing his family back together. 12-year-old Alex is distraught when his parents separate, so he hatches a plan that he's sure will get his parents back together. All he needs to do is get his dad to finish the novel he's always talked about writing ... can't be too hard, right? So, Alex tricks his dad into thinking he has a writing sabbatical and works out a way to take over his dad's postal route, giving his dad time to write his book and become the successful, happy man he needs to be. But Alex quickly learns postal work is a bit trickier than it might seem; there are the school bullies who throw his letters in the canal, an overly suspicious boss and a lot of angry dogs to get through. Not to mention Willow, the girl on the canal who starts to help Alex but has a dark secret that might derail everything ... As the weeks go by, Alex starts to appreciate how much his dad means to the people in the community. But the lies are piling up and as Alex's ruse starts to fall apart, he needs his dad more than ever ... successful author or not.

SALES POINTS:

- From the Carnegie nominated author of The Soup Movement and My Dad Is Definitely Not a Crime Lord.
- Perfect for fans of Frank Cottrell Boyle and Ben Bailey Smith.
- Based on Ben's own experience working as a postal carrier!

A fast-paced, time-twisting, magical adventure where EVERY SECOND COUNTS. 'I really couldn't put The Magic Hour down. The concept is genius, the characters are unforgettable and the adventure is thrilling. A book I'll be recommending to everyone!' - AF Steadman, best-selling author of Skandar and The Unicorn Thief. Eleven-year-old Ailsa Craig is always late! To everything—her own birth, school and even her own house exploding! Although it is certainly better to be late for that than early ... But then one day, Ailsa discovers the secret of a lifetime: An extra hour in the day. The Magic Hour, which exists in a fantastical, parallel Edinburgh, accessed at twilight. As she explores this extraordinary place where anything seems possible, Ailsa can't believe her luck. Her grades improve and life seems to be on the up—even the popular kids start liking her. But messing with time, can have desperate consequences. When Ailsa discovers that the extra time comes at a terrible cost, she must battle the sinister forces at work and save herself, her parents and the world. What would you do with an extra hour in the day? Perfect for fans of Skandar and the Unicorn Thief, Amari and the Night Brothers, Pages & Co and Nevermoor.

SALES POINTS:

- What would you do with an extra hour in the day? With a unique hook and exploration of time, this MG adventure is like no other. A distinct offering for readers and retailers.
- Brilliantly-written, from an author with credibility within the film/tv/ publishing industry.
- David Wolstencroft is the celebrated and award-winning screenwriter and producer of Spooks and Versailles.

9 781338 815306

All Elle Campbell wants to do is meet their hero, non-binary icon Nuri Grena. Well, okay, they'd like a bit more than that—they'd like to learn how to do cat eye makeup, for Queen Bee Casey to stop critiquing their outfits and for the finale of Elle's favourite show to have been less terrible. But meeting Nuri means the most of all. So, when Elle learns that Nuri is coming to town for a book signing on Saturday, Elle is thrilled. It's the perfect chance to meet their hero! Elle's never been happier since they came out as non-binary, but they have a lot of questions—questions only Nuri can answer. But Elle's dreams are dashed when an altercation with a surly substitute teacher lands Elle in Saturday detention. Elle is ready to give up until their two best friends come up with a plan to bust them out of school. A plan so outrageous, it just might work. Yet that's just step one. The kids also have to make their way across town with no money, no phones ... and no driver's licenses. But they refuse to give up—even if that means 'borrowing' scooters from elementary school loan sharks, or winning a laser tag tournament with a cash prize. Comic-author Ben Kahn makes their middle-grade debut with this zany, heartfelt love letter to friendship, John Hughes movies and the power of accepting who you are ... even when there's no set map for where you're going.

SALES POINTS:

- This is a zany, friendship-focused adventure featuring a nonbinary kid who knows who they are.
- Ben Kahn is a GLAAD-nominated writer and is well-connected in the comic book world.
- Addresses a need for joyful novels featuring LGBTQIA+ kids embraced by their communities.

Mehar hasn't been back to India since she was four. She hasn't visited her father or any of her family. Why would she? Her father made it clear that she was not his priority when he chose not to come to the US with her and her mum. But when her father announces his engagement to socialite Naz, Mehar reluctantly agrees to return for the wedding. Maybe she and her father can heal their broken relationship. And, after all, her father is Indian royalty and his home is a palace. While her father still doesn't make the time for her and she hates Naz and her social media influencer daughter, Mehar barely cares once she meets Sufiya, her grandmother's assistant. Though they come from totally different worlds, their friendship slowly starts to blossom into something more ... Mehar thinks. But she can tell Naz is using her dad for his money and putting a stop to the wedding might be the best for everyone involved. What happens when telling her father the truth about Naz and Aleena means putting her relationship with Sufiya at risk.

SALES POINTS:

- Sabina Khan writes powerful coming-of-age stories about Muslim teens who straddle cultures.
- This new book has added glam and escapism via the royal palace setting and the socialite/social media influencer elements: It's a lighter, more rom-com read than we've seen from Sabina to date: perfect for fans of Crazy Rich Asians.
- The #desigirl hashtag on TikTok has 3.3 billion views.

It's Easter morning and all of Sesame Street is gathered at the park for the Great Easter Race. Who will win the day? Will it be the turtle, who moves slowly and steadily towards the finish line? Or will it be the bunny, who runs faster than thunder, but seems easily distracted? Fun surprises wait around every turn, so come along with Elmo and all his friends at Sesame Street!

SALES POINTS:

- Australian mums rank Sesame Street #1 for education and preparing their kids for school.
- The market has 100% brand awareness of Sesame Street.
- By its 50th anniversary in 2019, 190 million children viewed over 160 versions of Sesame Street in 70 languages.

SPOT UV DETAIL!

It was a bright Easter morning on Sesame Street, and out in the park, friends were starting to meet. There were beautiful colours and flags waving free. Something special was happening. But what could it be?

A race! shouted Big Bird. "Come one and all, the young and the old, the short and the tall." Let's stretch out our legs and tie up our shoes. Get ready, get set, there's nothing to lose!
