KATE + JOL TEMPLE

Kate and Jol Temple are the internationally award-winning children's authors of more than twenty books for children. Their books have been translated into 22 languages worldwide. Their picture books include the hilarious bestselling picture book series Bin Chicken.

In 2022, Winner Winner Bin Chicken Dinner was shortlisted for the ABIA Children's Picture Book of the Year. In 2020, their picture book Room On Our Rock, a poignant allegory about empathy and refugees, was awarded the prestigious Charlotte Huck Award for Outstanding Fiction for Children, recognising fiction that has the potential to transform children's lives by inviting compassion, imagination and wonder.

Kate and Jol live in Sydney with their two sons. When they're not writing, Kate pretends to play the tuba and Jol makes little egg-carton shelters for Star Wars characters.

REBEL CHALLENGER

Rebel Challenger is an artist and wildlife carer who lives on a leafy acreage property, south of Brisbane. She has a background in graphic design and art direction, and has a science degree from the time when she wanted to be a park ranger.

Rebel has been drawing since she was a child. Her first artworks were created at about age three using her fingers in the dirt, but these days she mostly draws with ink on paper or creates digital art. Rebel's artwork is full of humour and colour and is inspired by the animals she cares for, as well as the chickens and ducks who wander around her backyard.

FRANCINE PASCAL'S SWEET VALLEY Twins THE GRAPHIC NOVEL

Jessica and Elizabeth have always been inseparable twins, but starting middle school means a chance for new beginnings! Elizabeth is excited to organise a school newspaper, but Jessica is more interested in joining the exclusive Unicorn Club. What will happen when the twins realise they might not be as alike as they thought? Middle school is hard enough, but with these twins each dealing with becoming their own person—will they be able to stay friends at the same time?

Q: Who wants their FIVE STAR funny story included in Oakfield School's story book?

A: EVERYONE! But what will Tom write about? Inspiration strikes when he looks at his excellent collection of ODD OBJECTS and remembers the funny stories behind each one. Starting with Great Great Aunt Aggie's fake bird hat, the weird stone with a hole and his very special doodle pen. Marcus wants to write about Tom (which is annoying), Amy's got a funny poem and Norman's story is all about... cheese. But Mr Fullerman can only choose the FIVE STAR STORIES—will Tom get his work in on time? And will Granddad read Tom's story and find out what REALLY happened to Aunt Aggie's hat? (Spoiler alert—probably.)

Cabin in the Woods meets Squid Game—a girl playing a game with a supercomputer unwittingly traps her sister in a deadly escape room. When Saffron is forced to do work experience at a tech company, she gets into an argument with her supervisor over which high school stereotype would survive the longest in a horror film: the sports star? The queen bee? The swot? The drama girl? The class clown? The rebel? Unbeknown to them, the AI robot she is working on at the time decides to determine the answer by testing it out for real. It designs an algorithm to search social media and school records to find the best examples of each stereotype from the neighbouring towns and the invitations go out—six people, including Saffron's perfectionist sister Georgia, will be trapped in a series of deadly escape rooms and only one will survive the night ...

Trevor was puzzled. "I am a duck. Are there no other birds like me on Niue?"
Veka shook her head. "No. You are the only duck on Niue," she told him.

From Lynda Finn comes the story of Trevor, a mallard duck that was blown from Aotearoa to Niue in 2018. He was embraced by the local community who brought him food, and even the firefighters would call by regularly to top up his puddle so he had fresh water to swim in.

SALES POINTS:

- Inspired by true events, this simple, heart-warming tale of a duck who gets blown off course and travels too far from home is full of pluck and adventure.
- Lynda Finn cleverly incorporates a smattering of easy-to-understand Niuean words that children will love.
- Nikki Slade Robinson's bright illustrations showcase Niuean island life.
- Perfect for children who enjoy true animal stories.

Format: PAPERBACK

Type: GRAPHIC NOVEL

Age Level: 12+

Dimensions: 229 X 152 MM

Page Count: 144 PP

High school star athlete Colin Kaepernick is at a crossroads in life. Heavily scouted by colleges and MLB as a baseball pitcher, he has a bright future ahead of him as a highly touted prospect. Everyone from his parents to his teachers and coaches are in agreement on his future. Colin feels differently. Colin isn't excited about baseball. In the words of five-time all-star MLB player Adam Jones, Baseball is a white man's game. Colin looks up to athletes like Allen Iverson: talented, hyper-competitive, unapologetically Black, and dominating their sports while staying true to themselves. College football looks a lot more fun than sleeping on hotel room floors in the minor leagues of baseball. But Colin doesn't have a single offer to play football. Yet. This touching graphic novel explores the story of how a young change-maker learned to find himself and never compromise. How the right decision is very rarely the easy one, but taking the road less traveled can make all the difference in the world.

SALES POINTS:

- Activist and athlete Colin Kaepernick's first biography for young adults, in graphic memoir form.
- Graphic memoir is one of the hottest formats for young adults in recent years.
- Colin's Netflix series Colin in Black & White debuted October 2021 and won an NAACP Image Award.
- Colin's dedication to uplifting black & brown voices is growing with his Know Your Rights Camp, a publishing line including an upcoming adult memoir and his TV series.
- Colin is dedicated to supporting the promotion of the book, with key media interviews, videos and social media pushes.
- Spike Lee will direct a multipart documentary for ESPN on Colin Kaepernick.

Oscar Starling never wanted to move to Chicago. The smog, the stench, the thieves around every corner—it's so different from his old life on the farm. Will the big city ever feel like home? But shortly after Oscar arrives, a huge fire breaks out. All of Chicago is ablaze and one thing is clear: the city is like a powder keg, ready to explode. An army of firemen tries to help, but this fire is a ferocious beast that wants to devour everything in its path. Will Oscar—and his new city and new friends—survive one of the most famous and devastating fires in history? Lauren Tarshis's New York Times best-selling I Survived series comes to vivid life in graphic novel editions. Perfect for readers who prefer the graphic novel format, or for existing fans of the I Survived chapter book series. These graphic novels combine historical facts with high-action storytelling that's sure to keep any reader turning the pages. Includes a nonfiction section at the back with facts and photos about the real-life event.

SALES POINTS:

- The I Survived Graphix line is going strong, with phenomenal sales of the first five books (almost 700,000 net sales in Trade since the series debut in 2020; 1.4 million across all Channels), and glowing feedback from educators, readers and reviewers.
- I Survived the Great Chicago Fire, 1871 (The Graphic Novel)* is our first Graphix title to take place pre-20th century. In fact, our previous three titles were all 21st century (9/11; GRIZZLIES; KATRINA), so this is a nice addition for readers who prefer the earlier historical fiction.
- This is our first I Survived Graphix title with a female artist!
- Graphic novel format is perfect for the series target audience of reluctant and fragile readers and should also attract a brand new audience of graphic novel fans.
- Reader engagement: I Survived has its own island on Home Base.

Olly Brown never gets to take home the Year 6 class hamster because his overprotective dad has some weird hang-up about how much responsibility pets are and how sad it is if/when hamsters die. But then the most amazing thing happens: a hamster shows up in Olly's house anyway—and it can communicate with him! This new hamster, Tibbles, is in awe of Olly, and it turns out, Tibbles is not alone: there's a whole civilisation of super-advanced, intelligent hamsters who seem to be worshipping Olly ... as a god? THIS IS SO AWESOME! But how is this possible??? Spoiler alert: Could it be that when his geeky dad was eleven years old, the test capsule he shot into space had some unintended hamster passengers—with mindboggling unintended consequences?

SALES POINTS:

When sixteen-year-old Asha Kennedy discovers her older sister Maya's dead body in their home, her world falls apart. Desperate for answers, and to stay out of the hands of the social services she grew up in, Asha turns to her hacker friends for help. Her search leads her to Zu Tech, the hit games studio where Maya was a lead coder, and as Asha begins to unravel the riddle of her death, she realises that the only way to uncover the truth is from the inside. Asha ghosts her old life and infiltrates a Zu Tech eSports tournament as they launch 'SHACKLE', the revolutionary Virtual Reality video game Maya was working on ... and which hides a monstrous secret ... You don't play the game; it plays you.

SALES POINTS:

- Commercial thrillers are dominating the YA market, and Love You to Death is perfect for fans of twisty murder mysteries.
- Gina offers a unique, sharply feminist perspective and a fresh voice.
- The topics of obsession, imitation and toxic love provide plenty of rich talking points.

THE IMMORTAL GAMES

AU RRP: $19.99

NZ RRP: $21.99

Author: ANNALIESE AVERY
 Publisher: SCHOLASTIC UK
 ISBN: 9780702306099
 Format: PAPERBACK
 Type: NOVEL
 Age Level: 13+
 Dimensions: 198 X 129 MM
 Page Count: 400 PP

An explosive new romantasy YA, perfect for fans of The Hunger Games and Lore. Every Lunar Eclipse signifies the beginning of the Immortal Games: An epic set of games played by the Gods of Olympus, with randomly-selected humans as their Tokens. The stakes are high for the Gods who covet entertainment and glory above all else. For the Tokens, it's about survival. 17-year-old Ara seeks revenge. Revenge on the Gods for allowing her older sister to die in the Games. And now she is consumed with one ambition only—to find a weapon powerful enough to kill a God. But when Ara is plucked from the clutches of death by Hades, God of the Underworld, she realises that she has become a Token herself in the brutal games. Coached by the only God who has never won the games, the odds are stacked against her. Hades is the outcast of the Gods, who selects a Token who is already about to die to give them a second chance at life. But he soon realises that Ara does not fear death, just as she does not fear him. And when a wager offers Hades unimaginable power should his Token win, the games take on a new meaning. As the Games progress, Hades teaches Ara the value of life and living. Ara—still grieving the loss of her sister—teaches Hades compassion. And with Tokens slowly succumbing to the quests, Ara must put aside her rage if she is to survive!

SALES POINTS:

- A breath taking, cinematic and high-concept YA debut that will sit perfect in the romantasy space.
- Carefully combining Greek mythology and astrology, this story has all the right hooks to excite BookTok and the YA community.
- With a Hunger Games meets Lore plot, this will be perfect for fans of Circe, Ariadne and The Silence of the Girls.
- Annaliese's MG sold well internationally, and this concept should be perfect for foreign territories.

Age Level: 12+
Dimensions: 229 X 153 MM

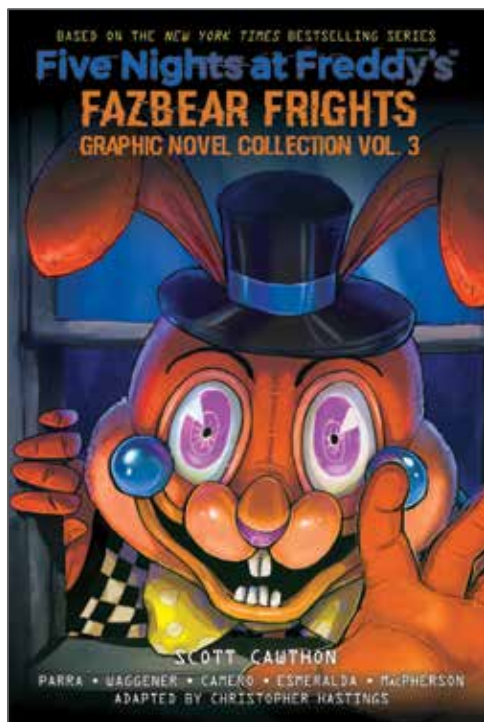

It's been ten years since the horrific murders at Freddy Fazbear's Pizza tore the town of Hurricane, Utah, apart. Charlie, whose father owned the pizzeria, reunites with her childhood friends on the anniversary of the tragedy, and together they revisit the abandoned pizza place. After they discover a way inside, they realise that things are not as they used to be. The four animatronic mascots that once entertained patrons have a dark secret ... one that sets Charlie and her friends on a path to unravel the many mysteries her father—and his twisted partner—left behind. Now readers can enjoy the complete original trilogy of Five Nights at Freddy's in one graphic novel boxed set!

Five Nights at Freddy's

Pete lashes out at his younger brother in the wake of his parents' divorce, falling prey to a gruesome curse. Years of frustration with his family culminate in a loathsome vacation for Bob, who plots a sinister prank to frighten his wife and kids. And, forever desperate to prove his worth to his arrogant brother and distant father, Toby chases victory at an arcade game with horrifying consequences. In the world of Five Nights at Freddy's, there's always an enormous price for tempting fate.

In this volume, three stories from the New York Times best-selling series Five Nights at Freddy's: Fazbear Frights come to life in delightfully horrifying comics. Readers beware: this collection of terrifying tales is enough to unsettle even the most hardened Five Nights at Freddy's fans ...

Chapter One

THIS IS THE STORY OF NUTTYBUB AND NITTERSING.

In the Big Gumtrees live the little Gumnut Babies.
If you could climb to the very treetop branches there you would find their little round houses, with the little round windows, and little round doors; hanging in the shelter of the leaves, warmed by the sun, cooled by the breezes, and kept clean and bright by the Rain.

Up and down the branches where the spots of sunlight chase the shadows—go the busy little Gumnut people.

They are almost impossible to see because their little pink bodies look like the sunspots on the bark, and their bright green caps look like the leaves, and their big blue eyes are just the colour of the sky.

Their cheeks, and toes, and fingers, are rosy like the stalks of the leaves, and the new Gumtaps, where the sun shines through them.

It's just a normal day in the life of Peter Porker, your friendly neighbourhood Spider-Ham! Keeping New York City safe from dastardly villains is no easy feat, especially when the Green Gobbler from the year 2099 travels back in time to team up with his present-day counterpart. Talk about a pair of rotten eggs! What's worse, Spider-Ham gets flung into the future, making it impossible to stop the duo's evil plot. He'll have to team up with heroes from all across time if he wants to make it back and save the day.

But what is New York City to do without its greatest defender? Luckily for everyone, Mary Jane Waterbuffalo and Black Catfish are here to pick up the slack while Peter Porker is messing around in the time stream. Can the two hold out long enough for Spider-Ham to return, or will the Green Gobbler finally claim his spot at the top of the roost?

SALES POINT:

- New Spider-Man content is on the horizon, with both live-action films and original animated shows currently in development!
- The Spider-Ham series has been extremely popular. Fans love the humour and adventure that Peter Porker goes on.

Buddy Lewek has spent most of his life dreaming of escaping the slums of 1939 New York City. Counting pennies to survive, it doesn't seem likely that Buddy's dreams of becoming an artist will ever be realised, but that all changes when he meets Mr. Joey Drew, the eccentric owner of an animation studio. Mr. D takes Buddy under his wing as an apprentice, and Buddy couldn't be happier—maybe, as Mr. D says, dreams do come true. But not everything at the studio is as picture-perfect as it seems ... Something is going bump at night in the studio, something that leaves behind trails of thick, dark ink. Buddy is determined to find out just what is tormenting the studio after-hours, even if it means tracking the trail to Mr. D himself.
